BRISTOL LISTS:

MUNICIPAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

COMPILED BY THE REV. ALFRED B. BEAVEN, M.A.
(Formerly Scholar of Pembroke College, Oxford.)

BRISTOL :
T. D. TAYLOR, SONS, AND HAWKINS, "TIMES AND MIRROR"
OFFICE, SMALL STREET.

TO

Francis Frederick Fox, Esq., J.P.,

Alderman and sometime High Sheriff of Bristol.
and Chairman of the Museum and Libraries Committees of the Bristol Corporation, who, both by his private researches and in his official character, has done so much to create and foster a more general interest in the history of our native city;

AND TO

Thomas David Taylor, Esq.,

Senior Proprietor of the "Bristol Times and Mirror,"

the "Grand Old Man" of Bristol Journalism, inheritor and transmitter of the local traditions of an older day,

I beg leave to Dedicate this record of many generations of prominent Bristol Citizens as a memorial of kindred tastes, and in recognition of invaluable assistance which they have generously rendered me in its compilation.

P R E F A C E .

The following pages are an expansion of some notes which originally appeared in the "Bristol Times and Mirror" nineteen years ago, and were revised, with considerable additions, in the same paper in 1897 and 1898. In their present much-enlarged form they constitute a nearly exhaustive collection of lists of those who have held official or quasi-official positions in Bristol, (with the exception of one important section), for a long period of years, going back, in the case of the Mayors, Sheriffs, Aldermen and Common Councillors, the Society of Merchant Venturers, and some of the more important offices under the Corporation, to the end of the 16th or the beginning of the 17th century.

The one important section which is omitted is that of the clergy, who are, as a class, not represented in these lists, except by the Mayors' Chaplains, though the names of several individual clerics are recorded in connection with the School Board, the Grammar School, the City Library, &c. I may hereafter supplement the present publication with an ecclesiastical series, for which I have accumulated considerable material.

The notes which form the basis of this collection were begun in my early boyhood, forty years since, and have been continued from time to time to the present day. The fact that I have not been resident in Bristol during the last thirty-one years, except at long intervals and for a few days at a time, has tended to increase the difficulty of securing the degree of accuracy and completeness at which I have aimed.

The somewhat sporadic arrangement of the book requires some apology. It is due to the original form of publication in a series of articles appearing periodically in a newspaper: the earlier sheets, dealing with the period since the Municipal Corporations Act of 1835, having been printed off before the whole work was completed, while its scope was being gradually widened by the inclusion, (in many instances in response to suggestions and requests), of matter which, although collected, I had not originally had it in contemplation to publish.

I hope that the Alphabetical Indexes, which comprise a summary of the offices held at various times by each one of nearly 3,800 individuals, will be found useful for reference. They have been compiled with great care, in the belief that they would add very materially to whatever value the rest of the work might possess.

It is impossible, in a collection dealing with so many names, dates, and facts, to ensure more than an approximation to perfect accuracy. In matters of date, especially, contemporary newspapers, (not to mention later authorities from which less minute accuracy is to be expected), often present considerable discrepancies, which, in the absence of any official record or family memoranda, render certainty impossible. The somewhat copious list of errata will, I fear, be evidence of some want of experience in proof-reading on my part, as well as of too many lapsus pluma in transcribing for the Press. I trust, however, that the errors which still remain uncorrected are neither numerous nor important.

It has frequently been difficult to discriminate fully between contemporaries bearing the same name, but, wherever possible, I have had recourse to comparison of signatures to enable me to verify my identifications in cases of doubt.

It remains for me to record my acknowledgments of the material assistance I have received, (both unsolicited and in answer to inquiries), from public and private sources in preparing these lists for publication.

The original papers, as printed in 1880, had been revised throughout, and some of the lists contained in them had been altogether contributed, by the Town Clerk (Mr. D. Travers Burges), who continued to furnish me with additions and notes from time to time until his invaluable help was interrupted by his serious illness. The aid which he had so liberally afforded me has since been abundantly supplied, with equal readiness, by Mr. C. S. Sampson, of the Town Clerk's office. To both these gentlemen I am under lasting obligation.

I must also specially acknowledge my indebtedness to the City Treasurer (Mr. J. Tremayne Lane) and to the Clerk to the Bristol Board of Guardians (Mr. J. J. Simpson), who have not merely displayed their habitual courtesy in placing the records under their charge unreservedly at my command, but have been unsparing both of time and labour in facilitating my researches by making references and transcribing minutes for me, and supplying me with careful tracings of signatures.

Amongst other officials who have given me valuable information and, whenever required, access to documents and records, I must offer my thanks to Mr. H. J. Spear (Secretary to the Chamber of Commerce), Mr. F. W. Newton (Secretary to the Charity Trustees), Mr. W. A. Adams (Clerk to the School Board), Mr. Henley Lancaster (Clerk to the Barton Regis Board of Guardians), Mr. Norris Mathews (City Librarian), Mr. Acland Taylor (Librarian of the Museum and Reference Library), Mr. Girdlestone (General Manager of the Docks), Dr. Davies (Medical Officer of Health), Mr. R. C. Tombs (Postmaster), and the Secretary to the Board of Customs in London.

In connection with my papers on the Colston Societies, I received much help from Colonel Woodward, Mr. L. C. Danger, and Aldermen Fox, Thatcher, and Cope-Proctor, while those on the Gloucestershire Society and the Antient Society of St. Stephen's Ringers owe their completeness to Mr. F. A. Jenkins and Mr. Fuller Eberle respectively.

To Alderman Fox and Mr. T. D. Taylor I have endeavoured, on another page, to express my sense of their kindness in giving me access to their valuable collections of Bristol books and newspapers respectively, as well as in supplying information from their vast stores of personal knowledge of men and things in relation to the last half century of local history.

To my friend, Mr. Fuller Eberle, my acknowledgments are due in an especial degree. His assistance has not been confined to matters connected with the Society whose records are in his custody, but he has, with characteristic promptitude and energy, applied himself to the task of searching for information for me on almost every point on which, from time to time, I have made him acquainted with any lacuna in my collection.

Mr. E. A. Harley's help, (most kindly volunteered, when I was personally unknown to him), has only been bounded by the limits which I have set myself in having recourse to it; and Mr. H. Napier Abbot and Mr. John Latimer, the careful and accurate historian of the city of his adoption, have been equally assiduous in providing me with material.

I must also acknowledge the courteous assistance of Mr. H. Meade King, Mr. Charles Nash, Mr. W. R. Barker, Mr. F. P. Lansdown, Mr. Arthur Lee, Mr. George White, and of my old schoolfellow, Mr. Edmund Gill, as well of many others who have answered particular inquiries by me in the "Times and Mirror," either directly or through the medium of that paper.

Finally, though I name him last, by no means the least entitled to my thanks is Mr. G. H. Pope, Treasurer of the Society of Merchant Venturers, who has made researches, involving some expenditure of time and labour, in the minutes of that Society on several occasions, in order to settle points on which I required official information. I trust he will not consider that his courtesy and kindness are inadequately appreciated by me, if I add that my gratitude to him is alloyed with a feeling of keen disappointment at being precluded by a rigid, not to say pedantic, adherence to a somewhat illiberal rule from having personal access to the records of the Society of which he is the representative, and being thereby deprived of the means of adding very materially to the comprehensiveness and accuracy of my work. I have been assured by one who has the best possible means of knowing, that there is nothing in the minutes of the Society which any one need mind being proclaimed to all the world, and, even if there were, I should have wished to use, or even to read, nothing contained in them beyond mere particulars of names and dates. I must confess to being somewhat surprised that such a rule should be enforced in the case of one who may, perhaps, claim to be entitled to be credited with worthier objects than mere idle curiosity, in seeking to inspect these records. Perhaps I may be permitted to hope that at some not very distant date, although too late for the purposes of the present publication, a renewed application on my part may be more favourably entertained.

I trust that the information put together in these pages may not be altogether without interest to Bristolians, and may be found useful for reference, both now and hereafter, if not to a wide public, at least to the members of that good old family of Dryasdust, which concerns itself with the records of persons and institutions of bygone times, and which, I hope, will always number some representatives among the natives and citizens of Bristol.

BRISTOL MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS SINCE THE ACT OF 1835.

NOTE.—The first election in all the wards took place on Dec. 26th, 1835. All subsequent elections were on Nov. 1st (or 2nd, if the 1st fell on a Sunday), unless when other dates are specified.

*Messrs. Harwood and Butcher were the only candidates for this vacancy, but as the election for three councillors to serve till 1840 was in progress at the same time, several votes were polled by mistake for the candidates who were standing for the other seats. The votes thus thrown away upon Mr. Maze would have sufficed to place him at the head of the poll at the contest in which he was actually a candidate.

5 Conservatives and 1 Liberal from 1883 to 1895

6 Conservatives from 1895

58 individuals have represented Bristol Ward, of whom 37 were Conservatives and 21 Liberals

21 Councillors, viz., those after whose names "J.P." is appended above, and also Messrs. Stock, Savage, Cox, R. Castle, Fudge, and Wall, were, or afterwards became, Justices of the Peace for the city.

1 (Sir J. K. Haberfield) was an Alderman up to the time of his election as Councillor

3 (Messrs. Stock, Bartlett, and Dix) were elected Aldermen whilst serving as Councillors

3 (Dr. Green and Messrs. Wall and W. K. Wait) were elected Aldermen after ceasing to be Councillors, the first-named (Dr.
Green) at the first meeting of the Council after his defeat in this ward.

BRISTOL WARD.—Continued.

- 6 (Sir J. K. Haberfield and Messrs. Shaw, Bates, Abraham, W. K. Wait, and Canning) served the office of Mayor. Mr. Savage had been Mayor before the Act of 1835
- 5 (Messrs. Bayly, Harford, W. H. Miles, Todd, and Sir W. H. Wills) served the office of High Sheriff, which was also filled by Messrs. Savage and Lean before the Act of 1835.
- 8 Councillors (Sir J. K. Haberfield and Messrs. Butterworth, G. E. Sanders, Hassell, J. Bush, Abraham, Bates, and R. Bush) died in office: only one (Mr. Acraman) vacated his seat by resignation

The longest periods of office were those of Mr. J. W. Miles and Mr. Canning, each of whom served for 24 years: the shortest that of Mr. Butterworth, who died within a month of his election.

The highest poll in this ward was 898 for Mr. H. W. K. Wait in 1893.

CLIFTON WARD.

NOTE.—In most instances where a small number of votes is recorded for a candidate in this ward he was nominated without his consent, generally by the late Mr. Royall, who proposed candidates at almost (if not literally) every election for 40 years.

CLIFTON WARD.—Continued.

- 15 councillors for this ward were, or subsequently became, Justices of the Peace for the city, viz., those after whose name J.P. is appended above, and also Messrs. J. N. Franklyn, Bigg, T. P. Jose, and W. W. Jose.
- 1 (Mr. Prichard) was elected Alderman while serving as Councillor, and 1 (Dr. Kay) at the termination of his period of office.
- 5 (Messrs. Bigg, Smith, Inskip, W. W. Jose, and Wathen) were also elected Aldermen after ceasing to be Councillors for Clifton Ward.
- 2 (Messrs. G. W. Franklyn and Gibbs) were Aldermen up to the date of their election as Councillors, and had already served the office of Mayor.
- 7 (Messrs. J. N. Franklyn, Clarke, W. Goldney, Langton, I. A. Cooke, Lane, and Taylor) served the office of Mayor whilst Councillors for Clifton Ward, and 2 (Mr. T. P. Jose and Sir J. D. Weston) after ceasing to represent it : 3 (Messrs. Hillhouse, G. Goldney, and Payne) were Mayors before the Act of 1835.
- 1 (Mr. W. Smith) served the office of High Sheriff; 5 (Messrs. Hillhouse, G. Goldney, Payne, M. Hinton Castle, and J. N. Franklyn) had been High Sheriffs before the Act of 1835.
- 13 (Messrs. G. Goldney, Warne, Ford, Case, W. Goldney, Gibbs, Hautenville, Coates, Lane, I. A. Cooke, Taylor, T. W. Gibson, and Hill) died in office.
- 5 (Messrs. J. N. Franklyn, Worrall, Carter, Colthurst, and Woodforde) vacated their seats by resignation; the last-named of these on appointment to a County Court Judgeship. General Worrall was re-elected a few months after his resignation.

The longest period of office was that of Mr. J. B. Burroughes, who served for 27 years (1845 to 1848 and 1852 to 1876) : the shortest that of Mr. Ford, whose two terms amounted to less than fifteen months.

The highest poll in this Ward was 1,149 for Mr. de Ridder in 1894.

ST. JAMES'S WARD was represented by—

- 3 Liberals from 1835 to Nov., 1872.
- 2 Liberals and 1 Conservative from Nov., 1872, to 1876.
- 3 Liberals from 1876 to 1886.
- 1 Liberal, 1 Conservative, and 1 Independent Unionist from 1886 to 1888.
- 2 Conservatives and 1 Independent Unionist from 1888 to 1889
- 1 Liberal, 1 Conservative, and 1 Independent Unionist from 1889 to 1890.
- 1 Liberal and 2 Conservatives from 1890 to 1892.
- 3 Conservatives from 1892 to 1893.
- 2 Conservatives and 1 Liberal since 1893.

[Messrs. Lockley (Liberal Unionist) and Lewis and Cottrell (Conservatives) were returned as Independents, but were opposed by Liberals at each contested election.]

26 individuals have represented St. James's Ward, of whom 22 were Liberals and 4 Conservatives. Two of the former (Messrs. Hall and Lockley), who were Councillors in 1886, became Unionists, and Mr. Lockley is now understood to be a Conservative; of the latter, 2 were returned as Independents.

4 (Messrs. Herapath, Godwin, Hale, and Champion) were Justices of the Peace for the City.

2 (Messrs. Naish and Hall) were elected Aldermen after ceasing to be Councillors.

1 (Mr. Lockley) served the office of High Sheriff two years in succession.

4 (Messrs. Jarman, Mills, Rankin, and Champion) died in office; 1 (Mr. Godwin) vacated his seat by resignation.

The longest period of office was that of Mr. Herapath, who served for 21 years (1842 to 1863); the shortest that of Mr. Rankin, 4 months (March—July, 1849).

The highest poll in this Ward was 514 for Mr. Lockley in 1884.

* Members of the old Corporation.

[At this election the names were proposed individually, instead of being voted for collectively. Mr. Fripp's name was first proposed by Mr. Cookson, seconded by Mr. H. Ricketts, whereupon an amendment was moved by Mr. Guppy that all the nominations should be handed in to the Town Clerk. 24 Conservative Councillors voted against, and the 22 Liberals, together with Messrs. C. George and H. Ricketts, for the amendment. The numbers were thus equal, and the Town Clerk ruled that the chairman had no casting vote. The deadlock was terminated by a compromise, the two parties consenting to propose names alternately until the whole sixteen had been elected. Messrs. Fripp, Pinney, Riddle, R. Ricketts, and Bushell were then proposed by the Conservatives and Liberals in turn, and elected without opposition. Then Mr. W. Tothill (L) was proposed by the Liberals, and defeated by 25 to 23. Mr. C. George voting with the Conservatives, and Mr. H. Ricketts with the Liberals. Next Mr. Watson was elected by 26 to 22; then Mr. Joseph Reynolds (L) rejected, and Messrs. Haberfield, Maningford, and Gibbs successively elected, each by 25 to 23. Then Mr. Robert Castle (L) was rejected by 27 to 21, and Mr. Roch was elected by 26 to 22. Mr. Stock (L), who had left the room, having previously declined nomination, was proposed by Messrs. C. George and Acraman from the Conservative side, and unanimously elected, as was Mr. Harley, who was nominated by Mr. F. Ricketts, from the Liberal side. Then Mr. Isaac Cooke, a Conservative, was proposed by two Liberals, and rejected by 28 to 19. Mr. G. W. Franklyn was next proposed and elected, the numbers being reversed. Then Mr. Winwood (C) was proposed by a Liberal (Mr. Herapath) and elected without a division, and Mr. Wait by 26 to 20; Mr. James Johnson (L) was rejected by 25 to 22, and Mr. Vining elected unopposed, thus completing the list. Nine aldermen had been elected without a division; eight of these were appointed to retire in 1841, and the seven opposed aldermen and Mr. Bushell to retire in 1838. During the proceedings Mr. C. George proposed 4 Liberal councillors (Messrs. Stock, Wood, F. Ricketts and Wayte), and Mr. Cunningham (one of the Liberal leaders)* 4 Conservative councillors (Messrs. Payne, Cookson, Bush and J. George), all of whom declined, though, as stated above, Mr. Stock was elected in spite of his refusal. Before this meeting a list of 16 had been prepared on both sides, Messrs. Pinney and Harley being included in each list. The names that were not put to the vote were the following :—Conservatives : Messrs. T. Cole, J. D. Pountney, and John Brent Cross ; Liberals : Messrs. John Cave, M. H. Castle, J. Addington, W. Brown, R. Bligh, W. Johnson, S. Waring, and T. Carlisle. Mr. T. Daniel occupied the chair at this meeting of the Council, the office of Mayor being vacant by the expiration of Mr. Payne's term of office with that of the old Corporation, while his successor's appointment was deferred until the completion of the new Council.]

THE ALDERMANIC BENCH consisted of 13 Conservatives and 3 Liberals from 1835 to April, 1838.

14 Conservatives and 2 Liberals from May to Nov., 1838.

15 Conservatives and 1 Liberal from 1838 to 1841.

16 Conservatives from 1841 to 1844.

15 Conservatives and 1 Liberal from 1844 to Oct., 1846.

16 Conservatives from October, 1846, to 1847.

15 Conservatives and 1 Liberal in November, 1847.

16 Conservatives from 1847 to March, 1851.

15 Conservatives and 1 Liberal from March, 1851, to 1853.

16 Conservatives from 1853 to September, 1861.

15 Conservatives and 1 Liberal from Sept., 1861, to Nov., 1873.

16 Conservatives from Nov., 1873, to Nov. 1881.

15 Conservatives and 1 Liberal (Unionist after 1886) from Nov., 1881, to Oct., 1888.

14 Conservatives and 2 Liberal Unionists from Oct., 1888, to 1889.

13 Conservatives and 3 Liberal Unionists from 1889 to Jan., 1892.

14 Conservatives and 2 Liberal Unionists from Jan., 1892, to 1897.

16 Conservatives, 2 Liberals, and 3 Liberal Unionists since 1897.

Ninety-four individuals have been elected Aldermen, of whom 90 were Conservatives, 10 Liberals, and 4 (Sir C. Wathen, Messrs.
Pethick, Fry, and Hall) Liberal Unionists at the dates of their respective elections.

Of the 10 Liberals (Messrs. Stock, R. Ricketts, Maningford, J.
Ricketts, Bright, Leonard, W. Naish, H. Naish, Davies, and Townsend), one (Mr. Bright) afterwards became a Conservative, and one (Mr. H. Naish) a Liberal Unionist.

Of the Conservatives, 8 (Messrs. Fripp, Pinney, Harley, H.
Ricketts, J. George, F. K. Barnes, W. W. Alexander, and Sir R. Symes) had at an earlier period belonged to the Whig or Liberal party.

Three gentlemen who were elected Aldermen declined to serve, viz., Messrs. Bright, Gibbs, and Finzel. Of these, Mr. Gibbs had already served the office.

Three (Messrs. Fripp, Roch. and J. George) had been Aldermen, and 5 (Messrs. Pinney, Riddle, Watson, Wait, and H. Ricketts)
Common Councillors before the Act of 1835.

Three (Messrs. Haberfield, Gibbs, and Franklyn) were elected Councillors on the 1st of November in the years in which their terms of office as Aldermen would have ended on the 9th of the same month.

With the exception of Mr. Stock, one of the original 16 elected in 1835, no sitting Councillor was chosen Alderman until 1886.

ALDERMEN.—Continued.

Since 1886, of 18 vacancies, 9 have been filled by representatives of the Wards (Sir C. Wathen, Messrs. Nash, Bartlett, Dix, Low, Inskip, Prichard, C. B. Hare, and Davies).

Twenty-four ex-Councillors have been elected, of whom 4 (Messrs. H. Ricketts, Kay, Spark, and H. Naish) had retired from the representation of their Wards, and 3 (Mr. Gibbs, who declined the office, Dr. Green, and Mr. Heaven) had been rejected by their constituents, on a 1st of November, and were chosen Aldermen during the same month.

Of the remaining 17, in whose cases a longer interval had elapsed between the termination of their services as Councillors and their elevation to the Aldermanic bench, 9 (Messrs. J. George, F. K. Barnes, Bigg, Jordan, Phippen, W. Naish, Pethick, J. H. Wathen, and Dr. Hihett) had been defeated in the Wards which they formerly represented, and 1 (Mr. Smith) had retired from the representation of Clifton and unsuccessfully sought election in Westbury. 7 (Messrs. Webb, Wall, H. Adams, Jose, Wait, Hall, and Townsend) had voluntarily retired from the Council.

Of the original 16 Aldermen, one (Mr. Stock) was an elected representative of a Ward, and 11 had been defeated at the polls at the first election of Councillors; only 4 (Messrs. Haberfield, Gibbs, Wait, and Bushell) had not sought to enter the Council.

Of those subsequently elected who had never sat in the Council, 11 had been unsuccessful candidates in the Wards on one or more occasions, viz., Messrs. Lilly, Butcher, Pountney, Grevile, Moore, Bright, Plummer, W. W. Alexander, J. F. Lucas, Sir R. Symes, and Thatcher; 33, as detailed above, had served as Councillors, and 35 had never sought election.

Forty-one of the Aldermen have been Justices of the Peace, viz., those to whose names J.P. is appended above, and Sir J. K. Haberfield, Messrs. Stock, Vining, and W. E. George, who were appointed after their last elections as Aldermen.

Sixteen (Messrs. Fripp, J. George, Haberfield, Franklyn, Gibbs, Pountney Barrow, Vining, S. V. Hare, W. Naish, F. Adams, Baker, Hathway, T. Barnes, Jones, and Sir G. Edwards) were elected to the Mayoralty while serving as Aldermen; of these, Messrs. Fripp and George had served the office before the Act of 1835, as also had Mr. Pinney.

Five (Messrs. Phippen, Wait, Davies, Sir C. Wathen, and Sir R. Symes) served the office of Mayor before being elected Aldermen. Sir C. Wathen was elected in his third year of office as Mayor, and Sir R. Symes immediately after the conclusion of his second year, and both served again after becoming Aldermen. Sir J. K. Haberfield was Mayor 5 times after ceasing to be an Alderman.

Thirteen (Messrs. Bright, Phippen, Woodward, Proctor, Smith, C. B. Hare, Fox, W. E. George, Harvey, Butterworth, Fry, Pethick, and Sir R. Symes) served the office of High Sheriff, as did Messrs. J. George, Fripp, Pinney, and Wait before the Act of 1835.

Twenty-four (Messrs. Stock, J. Ricketts, Moore, Harley, Ward, W. H. Wyld, Jordan, T. Lucas, H. Ricketts, Beloe, Vaughan, Heaven, Phippen, Abbot, Alexander, Webb, Proctor, Robinson, F. Adams, Brittan, H. Naish, Sir C. Wathen, J. F. Lucas, and Dr. Hihett) died in office.

Twelve (Messrs. Fripp, Edwards, J. H. Wyld, W. Naish, Woodward, H. Adams, Ford, Warren, Nash, Jones, Hathway, and Wait) vacated their seats by resignation.

The longest period of office was that of Mr. Robinson, nearly 7 years (1841 to 1878); the shortest that of Mr. Slaughter, 7 weeks.

MAYORS.—Continued.

42 individuals have been elected to the Mayoralty, of whom one (Mr. Daniel) declined to serve.

34 were Conservatives, 8 Liberals (viz. Messrs. Langton, Naish, Robinson, Thomas, Sir J. D. Weston, Sir C. Wathen, Barker, and Davies), of whom one (Sir C. Wathen) became a Liberal Unionist.

Although only eight Liberals were elected, they held the office sixteen times.

Sir J. K. Haberfield and Sir C. Wathen were each elected 6 times; Sir G. W. Edwards, Sir J. D. Weston, and Sir R. H. Symes each four times; Mr. Shaw, Alderman Vining, and Alderman F. Adams each twice. Alderman Fripp and Mr. J. George served the office of Mayor both before and after the Act of 1835.

There are at present (February, 1898) only 7 gentlemen living who have passed the chair, including the present Mayor, viz., Messrs. S. V. Hare, Wait, W. P. Baker, Sir G. W. Edwards, Barker, Sir R. H. Symes, and Davies, of whom all, except Messrs. Hare and Wait, are still members of the Corporation.

* One seat vacant in Bristol Ward.

† One seat vacant in Bristol and Clifton Wards.

[The Municipal Corporations Act had provided that casual vacancies should not be filled up until the whole Council was reduced to less than two-thirds of its full number, but this was repealed by the amending Act passed in July, 1837.]

In this estimate Messrs. Pinney, C. George, and H. Ricketts are reckoned as Conservatives, Mr. Richard Ricketts as a Liberal, and Mr. F. K. Barnes as a Liberal while a Councillor for St. Michael's (1846-1849). Messrs. H. J. Williams, De Ridder, Lewis, W. Cottrell, J. S. Naish, and Wintle are also included amongst Conservatives, and Mr. Lockley is classed as a Liberal up to 1836 and afterwards as a Liberal Unionist, to which division Mr. Levy-Langfield is assigned, but these gentlemen were returned as Independents and always acted without regard to political parties in municipal matters.

The poll books show that the votes of the members of the Council in the general elections of 1837, 1841, 1847, and 1852 were—

1837. Fripp, 34; Miles, 30; Berkeley, 28.
[29 voted for Miles and Fripp, 23 plumped for Berkeley, 4 (Alderman R. Ricketts, Messrs. Wood, F. Ricketts, and H. Ricketts) voted for Berkeley and Fripp, 1 (Alderman Harley) plumped for Fripp, and 1 (Mr. Jacques) voted for Berkeley and Miles. Alderman Fripp, Messrs. Hillhouse, Case, and Drake did not vote.]
1841. Fripp, 46; Miles, 45; Berkeley, 13.
[43 voted for Miles and Fripp, 11 plumped for Berkeley, 3 (Alderman Harley, Messrs. H. Ricketts and W. D. Bushell) plumped for Fripp, and 2 (Alderman R. Ricketts and Mr. E. B. Fripp) voted for Miles and Berkeley. Aldermen Fripp, Butcher, Watson, and Messrs. Bayly and Taunton did not vote.]
1847. Miles, 28; Fripp, 21; Berkeley, 19.

POLITICAL COMPOSITION OF THE BRISTOL CORPORATION,

1852. McGeachy, 37 ; Berkeley, 23 ; Langton, 19.

[35 plumped for McGeachy, 19 voted for Berkeley and Langton, 2 (Alderman Leonard and Sir J. K. Habersfield) for Berkeley and McGeachy, and 2 (Messrs. Langton and A. H. Palmer) plumped for Berkeley. Aldermen Alexander and Lucas and Messrs. Kempster, A. Alexander, C. T. Coathupe, and Shaw did not vote.]

In the election of 1847, when the Conservative party was divided, 6 members of the Council voted for both Miles and Fripp (Aldermen Prideaux and W. H. Wyld, Messrs. R. P. King, W. P. King, J. B. Burroughs, and J. Fisher) ; 21 plumped for Miles (Aldermen Cole, Pinney, Grevile, Robinson, Ward, Pountney, Kay, Vaughan, Dr. Green, Messrs. J. W. Miles, G. W. Franklyn, C. Blisset, Gray, C. Wait, Hautenville, W. Goldney, T. Powell, F. W. Green, Howell, C. J. Vining, and O. Coathupe) ; 11 plumped for Fripp (Aldermen H. Ricketts, Moore, Messrs. Shaw, Phippen, Gibbs, Perkins, C. B. Hare, Heaven, C. Taylor, T. W. Hill, and W. D. Bushell). Alderman Butcher voted for Berkeley and Miles, Aldermen Harley and Lucas and Mr. F. K. Barnes for Berkeley and Fripp, as also did Mr. R. Castle. There were 14 plumpers for Berkeley—Alderman Vining and Messrs. Habersfield, A. Alexander, Bernard, G. Thomas, J. Mills, and H. O. Wills did not vote.

The total number of individuals elected to the Council from the passing of the Municipal Corporations Act of 1835 to the present time (January, 1898) is 404, including two (Messrs. R. Bright and C. W. Finzel) who declined to serve. Of these, 233 may be regarded as having been at the dates of their respective first elections Conservatives in Imperial politics, 161 Liberals, 3 (Alderman Fry, Messrs. J. C. Godwin, and Levy Langfield) Liberal Unionists, 5 (Messrs. R. G. Tovey, Sheppard, Sharland, Curle, and O'Grady) Labour members, and 2 (Messrs. Gore and Baster) Socialists.

Of those classed as Liberals, Mr. F. K. Barnes, who was a Liberal Councillor, became a Conservative Alderman. Mr. H. W. Green had been a Conservative before entering, and rejoined that party before leaving the Council. Mr. J. Perry, though remaining nominally a Liberal, voted for Mr. J. W. Miles at the Parliamentary election of 1868, and with the Conservative members of the Council in December, 1869, against Mr. C. J. Thomas's motion for a redistribution of the Wards (on which occasion Mr. Woodforde Ffooks, a Conservative, voted with the Liberals). Mr. Cunningham, one of the prominent Liberal leaders (whose name stands second in the list of 57 who signed the address to the electors on behalf of Sir John Hobhouse in 1835, and who seconded Mr. Berkeley in 1837) was a Conservative in his later years, and Mr. S. S. Wayte also voted on that side in 1868.

Of the 27 Liberals who were members of the Council at the date of the introduction of the Home Rule Bill in 1886, nine (Messrs. W. Pethick, J. W. Hall, H. Naish, F. Wills, C. Wathen, Garton, Lockley, Dole, and Sibly) adhered to the Unionist section, and Mr. Follwell joined the Unionists later ; Messrs. G. Wills, L. Fry, M. Castle, Wedmore, Halsall, T. Castle, C. Tovey, and Dunlop, who had formerly sat in the Council as Liberals, also declined to follow Mr. Gladstone's lead on the Irish question.

Of those classed as Conservatives, Aldermen W. Fripp, Pinney, J. George, H. Ricketts, Harley, W. W. Alexander, Sir R. Symes, and Messrs. Lean, C. George, and Ffooks-Woodforde entered on public life as members of the Whig or Liberal party.

Many of the contested elections in the wards have been fought on matters of local, rather than Imperial, concern, the Docks question having for many years been the battle-ground of parties. It may be interesting to notice some of the chief divisions, as showing how political connection was entirely disregarded in this matter.

On October 25, 1847, the motion approving of the transfer of the Bristol Docks to the Corporation was carried by 42 to 4, the dissentients being two Conservatives (Alderman Harley and Mr. J. B. Burroughes) and two Liberals (Messrs. Prust and G. E. Sanders).

In the division of October 7, 1858, when Mr. Shaw's amendment, refusing to appoint a committee to confer with representatives of other public bodies for the promotion of increased dock accommodation, was carried by 25 votes to 24, the majority was made up of 15 Conservatives (Aldermen Ford, Robinson, Phippen, Barrow, Vaughan, Alexander, Beloe, Bigg, Messrs. Shaw, Canning, O. C. Lane, Poole, J. B. Burroughes, J. Colthurst, and General Worrall) and 10 Liberals (Messrs. Herapath, F. Terrell, Goss, M. Castle, Lang, Kempster, Coates, Ayre, W. Naish, and Wetherman). The minority was composed of 14 Conservatives (Aldermen S. V. Hare, Abbot, F. Adams, F. K. Barnes, and Dr. Green, Messrs. I. A. Cooke [Mayor], R. P. King, W. P. King, J. Hare, G. Cooke, Hassell, C. Nash, Heaven, Dr. Rogers) and 10 Liberals (Messrs. E. S. Robinson, C. J. Thomas, Visger, W. D. Wills, H. O. Wills, Perry, Cole, Price, C. Tovey, and Leonard). Two Conservatives (Messrs. Fuidge and Bates) paired respectively for and against the amendment. Ten Conservatives (Aldermen Vining, Proctor, and Webb, Messrs. J. W. Miles, A. Alexander, Perkins, C. Taylor, J. Fisher, F. W. Green, and J. Smith) and three Liberals (Messrs. A. H. Palmer, H. Pritchard, and R. Fry) were absent unpaired.

On June 18, 1872, Mr. Perry's resolution, declaring it inexpedient for the Council to subscribe to either of the competing Dock undertakings at the mouth of the river, was rejected by 37 to 18, the minority consisting of 13 Conservatives (Aldermen Proctor, Baker [Mayor], Robinson, S. V. Hare, J. F. Lucas, Barrow, Alexander, Messrs. Ffooks-Woodforde, R. P. King, W. P. King, J. B. Burroughes, B. G. Burroughes, Gibson, and Poole) and 5 Liberals (Alderman W. Naish, Messrs. Perry, H. J. Mills, F. Terrell, and Wetherman). The majority was made up of 22 Conservatives (Aldermen Abbot, T. Barnes, Ford, Dr. Green, Hathway, Proctor, Woodward, Messrs. R. Bush, Bartlett, Canning, I. A. Cooke, W. Smith, G. Cooke, J. H. Nash, Finzel, C. B. Hare, W. A. F. Powell, C. Nash, Spark, W. M. Webb, T. T. Taylor, and J. Hellicar) and 15 Liberals (Messrs. W. Terrell, W. H. Wills, G. Wills, W. Pethick, E. S. Robinson, Weston, Carpenter, Sibree, T. Petlick, G. Cole, Follwell, Matthews, C. J. Thomas, Whitwill, and Evans, the absentees being seven Conservatives (Aldermen F. Adams, Webb, Messrs. Wait, W. H. Miles, W. H. Harford, H. Adams, and T. P. Jose) and two Liberals (Messrs. C. Godwin and Wedmore).

On July 1, 1872, Alderman Hathway's proposal to subscribe £100,000 to the Portishead Dock was carried by 36 to 19, the majority including 15 of the 18 gentlemen who voted with Mr. Perry in the preceding month, the three exceptions being Aldermen Lucas and Naish, and Mr. Wetherman. The remaining 21 who voted for the subscription were Aldermen Hathway, Woodward, Ford, F. Adams, and Abbot, Messrs. Canning, Bartlett, H. Adams, I. A. Cooke, C. B. Hare, Finzel, T. P. Jose, J. Hellicar, W. A. F. Powell, and G. Cooke (Conservatives), and Messrs. W. Pethick, Weston, Sibree, Follwell, Wedmore, and Cole (Liberals), making a total of 27 Conservatives and 9 Liberals. The minority of 19 was made up of 12 Conservatives (Aldermen Lucas, Proctor, T. Barnes, and Dr. Green, Messrs. C. Nash, W. K. Wait, R. Bush, W. M. Webb, W. Smith, J. H. Nash, Spark, and T. T. Taylor) and 7 Liberals (Messrs. E. S. Robinson, T. Pethick, G. Wills, Carpenter, Whitwill, Matthews, and Evans).

On the same day Mr. E. S. Robinson had moved to appoint a committee for the purpose of arranging for the acquisition by the Council of an interest by purchase, or otherwise, in the Avonmouth Docks, but was defeated by 33 to 22, the names being the same as on Alderman Hathway's motion, with the exception that four Liberals (Messrs. W. Pethick, Sibree, Cole, and Wedmore) and one Conservative (Mr. Wait) changed sides in the two divisions. The voting was thus—For Avonmouth, 11 Conservatives and 11 Liberals; against, 28 Conservatives and 5 Liberals. Mr. W. Terrell and Alderman W. Naish paired for Avonmouth and Portishead respectively. The absentees were Alderman Webb and Messrs. W. H. Harford and W. H. Miles (Conservatives), and Messrs. C. J. Thomas, W. H. Wills, Wetherman, and C. Godwin (Liberals).

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES ON THE COMPOSITION OF THE BRISTOL CORPORATION, 1835-1898.

Of the original 63 members of the Council elected in 1835 (the full number of 64 was not completed till 1837, when the seat for Bristol Ward, vacated by Mr. Stock's election as an alderman, was filled), 20 had been members of the Corporation before the passing of the Act of that year, viz., Aldermen Fripp, Pinney, Riddle, Roch, Watson, Wait; Messrs. Daniel, Hilhouse, J. George, C. George, G. Goldney, Savage, Payne, J. N. Franklyn, Walker, Lunell, Lean, M. H. Castle, H. Ricketts, and P. Maze, jun. Of these, Messrs. Daniel, Fripp, Hilhouse, J. George, Goldney, Savage, and Roch were aldermen under the old régime.

The following (25 in all) represented more than one Ward at various periods of their service as Councillors, viz., Messrs. M. Hinton Castle, Herapath, Visger, Tothill, T. Powell (of Montpelier), J. Wood, T. R. Sanders, G. E. Sanders, A. W. Warren, Wetherman, H. Prichard, Derham, L. Fry, Lee, G. Wills, C. Wills, Sir J. D. Weston, Sir W. H. Wills, T. Gibson, Aiken, T. P. Jose, Inskip, Spark, W. M. Webb, and H. J. Williams, the first 18 of these being Liberals.

Five of these (Messrs. Lee, Spark, Webb, Gibson, and Sir W. H. Wills), who had been transferred from the Wards for which they had been elected, by vote of the Council at the redistribution of 1880, did not offer themselves for re-election in the Wards to which they had been thus assigned, and one of them (Mr. Gibson) returned, at the expiration of his term of office, to the Ward he had previously represented.

The last survivor of the original body, as elected in 1835, was Mr. T. R. Guppy, Councillor for St. Paul's Ward, who died June 28, 1882, aged 84, at Naples, having resided abroad for many years. The last survivor of the Aldermen elected in 1835 was Mr. William Fripp, who died Dec. 24, 1891, aged 86. Of the original members of the Council, the last to vacate his seat was Mr. Richard Poole King, who continued to represent Redcliff Ward till his death, at the age of 75, on Sept. 26, 1874.

The senior member of the Council at the present time (Feb., 1898), by continuity of service, is Alderman Proctor Baker (first elected July 15, 1869), Alderman Bartlett being his junior by a few weeks (first elected Aug. 30, 1869). Those next in order are Aldermen Hare (1871), Inskip (1872), Low (1873), Sir G. Edwards (1874), Councillor Arthur Baker (1874), Alderman Fox (1875), Councillor Abbot (1877), and Alderman Harvey (1877), all of whom have served continuously for more than 20 years.

If, however, seniority be reckoned by priority of entrance into the Council, without regard to continuity, Alderman Fox, who was first elected in 1865, is the Father of the Council, the next to him in order of time being Alderman Pethick (1866); Aldermen Smith (1870), Townsend (1873), and Jose (1874) take precedence of some of those named in the preceding paragraph.

The Fathers of the Council by continuity of service have been—

Dec. 1835, Mr. T. Daniel
Nov. 1841, Alderman Fripp
Nov. 1845, Mr. James George
Nov. 1846, Alderman Pinney
Nov. 1853, Alderman H. Ricketts
May 1859, Mr. Richard Poole King
Sep. 1874, Mr. William Poole King
Nov. 1880, Mr. Christopher Thomas
Nov. 1883, Mr. Charles Nash
Nov. 1888, Sir Joseph Weston
Nov. 1892, Alderman J. F. Lucas
Oct. 1893, Alderman Proctor Baker

If priority of entrance to the Council be preferred to continuity of service, the succession of Fathers of the Council runs thus—

Dec. 1835, Mr. Thomas Daniel
Nov. 1841, Alderman Fripp
Nov. 1845, Mr. James George
Nov. 1846, Alderman Pinney
Nov. 1847, Alderman James George
Nov. 1853, Alderman H. Ricketts
May 1859, Mr. Richard Poole King
Sep. 1874, Alderman Webb
Feb. 1875, Mr. William Poole King
Nov. 1880, Mr. Christopher Thomas
Nov. 1883, Mr. Charles Nash
Nov. 1888, Alderman Fox

The senior surviving ex-member of the Council is Mr. Edward Halsall, who was elected for St. James's Ward in March, 1849, the next to him being Mr. Charles Nash, who was returned for St. Augustine's in March, 1851, and served as Councillor and Alderman for 37 years.

The longest period of service since the Act of 1835 was that of Mr. William Poole King, who sat for Redcliff Ward exactly 39 years (Nov. 1, 1841, to Oct. 31, 1880). Mr. Richard Poole King and Mr. Christopher Thomas each served for 38 years and 9 months, the former from Dec. 26, 1835, to Sept. 26, 1874, and the latter from Jan. 31, 1845, to Oct. 31, 1883. Mr. T. Daniel was a member of the unreformed and reformed Councils continuously for more than 56 years (June 29, 1785, to Oct., 31, 1841).

The shortest period of office was that of Mr. T. S. Butterworth, who was elected as Councillor Aug. 12, 1842, and died Sept. 5, in the same year, only 24 days afterwards.

Of well known Bristol families, that of Hare has contributed 6 members to the Council; those of Castle and Lucas 5 each; those of Bush, Ricketts, Terrell, and Wills (of the tobacco firm), 4 each; those of Fripp, Fry, George, King, Miles, Nash, Vining, and Wait, 3 each.

Of the 404 members elected to the Council, 74 (24 Aldermen and 50 Councillors) have died in office, and 188 after ceasing to be Councillors, leaving 142 survivors, of whom 84 are present members and 58 have retired.

Of the 246 members whose connection with the Council was not terminated by death, 206 members withdrew at the close, and 15 in the course, of a term of office; 23 were rejected by their constituents, and either did not seek, or were unsuccessful in the attempt, to obtain re-admission. These were Alderman Maningford, Messrs. Savage, C. B. Fripp, J. Cox, and W. H. Harford (Bristol); S. F. Cox, S. G. James (Bedminster), Jacques, C. Wait, Cooper, and Fear (Clifton); Sibree (Redcliff), T. Powell, of Charlotte-street (St. Augustine's), Halsall, Herapath, and C. Fisher (St. James'); Waterman, F. James, and Hewett (St. Michael's); C. Tovey and Follwell (St. Paul's), Dole and G. Wills (St. Philip's). Besides these, Mr. J. Cunningham gave up his seat for St. James' in 1838 to stand for Bristol, and Mr. Lee retired from Bedminster to contest his old seat in St. Augustine's in 1880, and in each case failed to obtain election. Three Councillors, Messrs. I. Riddle, Guppy, and Giles, who had voluntarily retired at the end of a term of office, made unsuccessful attempts to recover a seat in later years.

118 have been Justices of the Peace for the city, 41 served the office of Mayor, and 25 that of High Sheriff during the period since 1835. Nine (Messrs. T. Daniel, W. Fripp, J. George, Hilhouse, G. Goldney, Savage, Payne, Pinney, and Walker) filled both offices, and eight others (Messrs. J. N. Franklyn, W. K. Wait, T. H. Riddle, Lunell, Lean, Maze, jun., Roch, and M. Hinton Castle) that of Sheriff before the passing of the Act.

43 have been Masters of the Society of Merchant Venturers, whose names will be found in the supplementary lists; three (Messrs. W. W. Davies, C. George, and E. T. Lucas), of whom the last died in office, attained to the Wardenship of the Society without reaching the chair. Mr. John Hellicar was Treasurer of the Society for four years.

38 have been Presidents of the Dolphin Society, 35 of the Anchor, 42 of the Grateful, and 34 of the Colston or Parent Society, 12 have been members of the School Board, the chairmanship of which was held in succession by Messrs. Whitwill and L. Fry; 6 have been unsuccessful in attempts to gain seats upon the Board.

19 have been Governors of the Incorporation of the Poor; six (Messrs. J. Wood, Herapath, Wedmore, Gilbert, Levy, and Coulthard) have been Deputy-Governors, but have not gone on to occupy the chair. Mr. T. Daniel was Treasurer 1810-1818, and Alderman Maningford 1827 till his death in 1854.

11 have been Presidents, and 10 Chairmen, of the Chamber of Commerce since its resuscitation in 1853; 3 had held the presidency of the earlier Chamber.

45 have been Charity Trustees, three of whom (Messrs. J. Cunningham, G. Thomas, and F. Terrell) have presided over that body.

24 have presided over the Society of St. Stephen's Ringers.

Two members of the Council (Messrs. W. H. Wills and F. Wills) have been made Baronets: a Baronetcy has also been conferred on Mr. C. D. Cave, who was never a member of the Council, but served as High Sheriff in 1862. Five (Messrs. Haberfield, G. Edwards, Weston, C. Wathen, and Symes) were knighted, as was also Mr. John Hare, who was an unsuccessful candidate for Redcliff Ward in 1835, and for a seat on the Aldermanic bench in 1838, but never effected an entrance to the Council.

The following have held seats in the House of Commons:—

G. W. Franklyn, M.P. for Poole 1852-1865.

W. H. Gore-Langton, M.P. for Bristol 1852-1865.

J. W. Miles, M.P. for Bristol April—June, 1868 (unsuccessful candidate Nov., 1868).

E. S. Robinson, M.P. for Bristol March—June, 1870 (unsuccessful candidate 1880).

W. K. Wait, M.P. for Gloucester May, 1873-1880 (unsuccessful candidate 1880, 1885).

L. Fry, M.P. for Bristol Dec. 1878-1885, North Bristol 1885-1892, and since 1895 (unsuccessful candidate 1892).

Sir W. H. Wills, Bart, M.P. for Coventry 1880-1885; East Bristol since March, 1895 (contested South-East Essex 1885, 1886, South Bristol 1892).

H. Cossham, M.P. for East Bristol 1885—April, 1890 (contested Nottingham May, 1866, Dewsbury 1868, Chippenham 1874).

Sir J. D. Weston, M.P. for South Bristol 1885-1886; East Bristol May, 1890—March, 1895 (contested South Bristol 1886).

C. Townsend, M.P. for North Bristol, 1892-1895 (unsuccessful candidate 1895).

The following, who have not obtained seats in Parliament, have unsuccessfully contested constituencies :—

W. Fripp, Bristol, 1837, 1841, 1847.

S. V. Hare, Bristol, March, 1870, June, 1870, 1874.

W. Pethick, Launceston borough, July, 1885.

J. Inskip, East Bristol, 1886, May, 1890.

H. Holmes Gore, East Bristol, March, 1895.

Sir F. Wills, Bart., Launceston Division of Cornwall, 1895.

One member of the Council, Mr. C. W. C. Finzel, took Holy Orders after retiring from municipal public life. Four (Messrs. Grace Smith, Ffooks-Woodforde, Taunton, and T. W. Gibson) were barristers ; the two former of these became County Court judges, and Mr. Taunton was the editor of a well-known volume of Law Reports.

The other branch of the legal profession has always been represented in the Council. The original 63 included three attorneys, viz., Alderman Habberfield, Messrs. Phippen and Wayte ; in the present 84 are numbered 8 solicitors (Aldermen Dix, Inskip, and Prichard, Messrs. Pearson, Abbot, Hancock, Barnett, and Spofforth), and there have been at various periods 20 others (Aldermen Ward, Heaven, Greville, Abbot, and Brittan, Messrs. L. Fry, A. H. Palmer, Jarman, Frampton, Clarke, B. G. Burroughs, I. A. Cooke, G. Cooke, Perkins, R. Leonard, jun., Salmon, Ayre, Sibly, Gore, and Pottow), making 31 in all, of whom only 10 were Liberals, and of these three belong to the Unionist wing of that party.

There have been 12 medical practitioners (Aldermen Kay, Green, Highett, and J. H. Wathen, Messrs. Staples, G. Rogers, F. Terrell, R. Smith, J. B. Burroughs, J. Colthurst, A. G. Cunningham, and Wintle), of whom only two were Liberals. Mr. Coates, who was the proprietor of the Sion spring, was also a qualified surgeon, and Mr. Ware had at one time been in practice after he came to Clifton.

The fighting services contributed General Worrall, Admirals Warde and Close, and Commander Cawley (all of them representing Clifton Ward), to whom may be added Alderman Warren, formerly a Captain in the 91st Foot, and Colonel Bush, who had attained the rank of Major in the Regulars before becoming a Volunteer officer. All these were Conservatives.

The banking interest sent Alderman Maningford, Messrs. Lean, Bayly, Aiken, J. W. Miles, W. H. Miles, R. F. Miles, Cave, Bates, and W. H. Harford, all of whom, except Alderman Maningford, were councillors for Bristol Ward and Conservatives.

The West India merchants included Mr. T. Daniel, Captain Strachan Bridges, Alderman Pinney, and R. Robinson, Messrs. J. Cunningham, Payne, Bruce, Lunell, Case, Bernard, and R. Bright ; and African trade has been represented by the families of King the Lucas, which between them contributed six councillors for Redcliff Ward and two aldermen, all Tories ; the American by Alderman Jose and his father, Mr. T. P. Jose.

The liquor and kindred interests have been almost as strongly represented as the law ; there have been twelve brewers (Aldermen

J. George, W. E. George, and Vaughan, Messrs. Wetherman, W. H. Castle, Dunlop, Lockley, Garton, S. James, S. G. James, J. Carter, and Hewett); the distillers include four members of the Castle family and Messrs. T. Harris and Board, and twelve wine merchants figure in the lists of the Council, viz., Aldermen Watson, W. H. Wyld, J. H. Wyld, Harvey, and Moore; Messrs. E. A. Harvey, J. Fisher, C. Fisher, C. Tovey, Fear, Rankin, and Abraham. Mr. G. Wills was also in the wine trade at one time, and Mr. F. Ricketts had been a partner in George's Porter Brewery. Mr. A. J. Harris is secretary to a licensed victuallers' association. Alderman Lilly, Messrs. I. Riddle and H. W. Green were maltsters.

Three Bristol firms of world-wide fame have contributed to the Council—Alderman F. J. Fry and Mr. R. Fry from the great chocolate manufactory, six Hares from the floorcloth works, and four Willses representing the celebrated "Bristol Bird's Eye"; several other members also having been associated with the tobacco trade, viz., Aldermen Sir G. W. Edwards, G. W. Franklyn, Bigg, R. Ricketts, J. Ricketts and Morgan, Messrs. J. N. Franklyn, E. B. James, H. G. Edwards, and Richards.

Other industries which have been conspicuously represented in the Bristol Corporation are—

Sugar by Aldermen Stock and Vining, Messrs. Finzel, Savage, Fiske, C. Vining, C. J. Vining, T. S. Butterworth, Wedmore, and Guppy (of whom the last-named afterwards forsook commerce for civil engineering, a profession which at present has its representative in Mr. Saise).

Iron by Aldermen Harley, Winwood, Butterworth, and Slaughter; Sir J. D. Weston, Messrs. P. Maze (sen. and jun.), W. W. Davies, C. Godwin, J. Colthurst Godwin, J. H. Nash, Lang, Jackson, and Sibree.

Soap by Alderman Fripp, Messrs. C. B. Fripp, E. B. Fripp, C. J. Thomas, J. Harding, Shaw, and R. Moore.

Timber by Aldermen F. K. and T. Barnes, C. Nash, J. Averay Jones, and Low; Messrs. Howell and H. Taylor (all Conservatives).

Corn by Aldermen Baker, Adams, and W. K. Wait (sen. and jun.); Messrs. A. Baker, H. W. K. Wait, Marshall, and W. Lane, of whom the last-named is the only Liberal.

Leather manufacture by Alderman Davies, Messrs. Hassell, N. Moore, Latham, Ashman, and Boyd; the kindred industry of boots and shoes by Messrs. Derham, Waterman, Kempster, Coe, and Britton; and the tanneries by Messrs. Brown, Drake, J. Cox, S. F. Cox, and Evans. Only two of these 15 gentlemen, viz., Messrs. Hassell and S. F. Cox, were Conservatives, there being apparently some occult connection between leather and advanced Liberalism, and, similarly, between timber and Toryism.

To these may be added the various firms in the glass industry represented by Messrs. Cookson, T. Powell (of Charlotte-street), W. A. F. Powell, O. Coathupe, C. T. Coathupe, J. W. Hall, sen., and Aldermen H. Ricketts and Hall; the oil and colour trade and dry-salting by Aldermen Bushell, Fox, R. Leonard, and Thatcher, Messrs. E. B. Colthurst, T. Harding, H. Prichard, and J. E. Nash; pottery by Alderman Pountney and Mr. Price; coach-building by Messrs. J. Perry, Eberle, E. Rogers, and Cleverdon; building and contracting by Messrs. W. Baker, Bastow, Crocker, Mereweather, Cowlin, Lloyd, Coole, and F. Moore (all Radicals); the provision trade by Sir R. H. Symes, Alderman Webb, Messrs. Dole and Shirley; wholesale grocery by Alderman Butcher, Messrs. Budgett, W. Harwood, J. B. Harwood, G. Thomas, Fuidge, F. James, H. G. Gardner, C. E. L. Gardner, and Jennings (eight Liberals and only two Conservatives); the wholesale drug trade by Alderman Townsend, Messrs. A. Warren and Matthews (all Liberals); cabinet making by Messrs. Alsop and Newth; linen, drapery, and silk mercery by Aldermen Cole, Plummer, Prideaux, and Spark, Messrs. Carlisle, Cordeux, J. Smith, and Francis; woollen drapery by Alderman Hathway, Messrs. Carpenter, Coulthard, Levy, and Levy-Langfield; wholesale clothing by Messrs. Todd, C. Wills, and Sir C. Wathen; the hemp, rope, and sailcloth manufactures by Messrs. W. Terrell (sen. and jun.), H. Terrell, Gwyer, and C. Wait.

The coal trade has contributed three colliery proprietors (Messrs. Cossham, Wethered, and Bennett) and three merchants (Messrs. James Poole, Ring, and A. J. Smith). Mr. Pembury was a coal agent.

The patent shot, lead, and brass manufactures were represented respectively by Mr. Christopher George, Alderman Riddle, and Mr. C. L. Walker (all Conservatives and members of the old Corporation); Messrs. G. E. Sanders, T. R. Sanders, T. Powell (of Montpelier), and Parsons (all Liberals) were seed merchants; Alderman Woodward and Mr. W. M. Webb, vinegar merchants; Alderman Ford, Mr. James Ford, sen., Mr. Canning, and the various members of the Bush family were bonded warehousemen; Mr. Cripps, a wharfinger and marble merchant; Mr. Lee was also a marble merchant, having formerly been in the building trade; Aldermen Beloe and W. Smith were Colonial produce brokers; Aldermen Proctor and Cope-Proctor, chemical manure manufacturers; Messrs. W. and W. H. Butler, resin and turpentine importers; Messrs. F. W. Green, Acraman, and E. B. Hill, ship-builders; Alderman Alexander, Messrs. Whitwill and A. Alexander, ship brokers; Messrs. V. and J. Hellicar, general merchants and agents in oil and foreign produce; Alderman Barrow, an insurance broker; Mr. Ridler, a Manchester warehouseman; Messrs. Tothill and Visger, manufacturers of Roman cement and vegetable dyes respectively; Mr. T. Pethick and Alderman Pethick, hide and tallow merchants; Messrs. E. S. Robinson, Mardon, O. C. Lane, and Jefferies, stationers; Messrs. T. Gibson and Betty, hat manufacturers; Messrs. C. and T. T. Taylor, goldsmiths, the latter of whom was afterwards a sugar refiner; Mr. Champion represented the wholesale confectionery trade, and Mr. H. W. Carter the aerated water manufacture; Alderman W. Naish hosiery, Alderman H. Naish the cotton manufacture, Alderman Gibbs that of vitriol, and Alderman Jordan that of alkali. The last-named gentleman, who was borough auditor before becoming a councillor, had been an accountant—a profession which has also contributed to the Council Messrs. Anstey and Tryon, all three being Conservatives. Messrs. H. Daniel and Lewis are auctioneers, Alderman Bartlett is a weighing machine manufacturer; Messrs. H. F. Cotterell and W. Cottrell deal in wall paper and china respectively; Mr. Follwell is a fly proprietor; Mr. Duffett was a brick manufacturer; the sartorial art has been represented by Messrs. Jeffery and Walls (both Conservatives and both councillors for St. Augustine's), and by Mr. Verrier; pawnbroking by Messrs. G. Cole, Swaish, and

Chandler (all Liberals); the profession of land surveying and estate agency by Messrs. Hughes, Pavey, and De Ridder; stock-broking by Messrs. Goss, White, and Lowe, of whom the first-named had been previously a haberdasher; Mr. Herapath was an analytical chemist of considerable eminence; Mr. Halsall was a watchmaker, Mr. H. J. Williams an architect, Messrs. Cooper, Giles, and J. Wood, retail chemists and druggists; Messrs. Billing and John Poole are undertakers; Alderman Wall and Messrs. B. Perry and Stephens were hauliers and railway carriers; Mr. J. S. Naish was a bacon curer; Mr. Terrett a purveyor of meat; Messrs. J. and H. J. Mills were printers and proprietors of the now defunct Bristol Gazette; and Mr. Field Gilbert, originally a dyer, was for several years the secretary of the old Liberal Association for the undivided city; Mr. Elkins, who was formerly a carpenter, discharges those duties now in the Western Division; and Messrs. Swaish and Twiggs, the latter of whom is a maker of perambulators, are honorary secretaries for the Radical party in the Eastern and Southern Divisions.

Of the Labour and Socialist members, Mr. Easter is agent for the carriers, Messrs. Sutton and Co.; Mr. Curle is a carpenter, Mr. O'Grady a chairmaker, Mr. Sharland an engine fitter, Mr. Sheppard a bootmaker, and Mr. R. G. Tovey was a clothier's cutter.

It will be seen from the foregoing that the Council has, especially of late years, comprised representatives of almost every variety of professional, commercial, and industrial occupation.

HIGH SHERIFFS.—Continued.

60 individuals have been elected to the office of High Sheriff since the Act of 1835, of whom one (Mr. Maze) had held it under the old régime, when 2 Sheriffs were elected annually.

Three (Messrs. Phippen, Walton, and Lockley) held the office twice, of whom the first-named died before the expiration of his second term. Mr. Edwards also acted for a second year, his elected successor declining to serve.

14, as indicated above, were members of the Council at the dates of their respective elections.

Three (Messrs. Harding, Maze, and Fisher) had ceased to be, and 7 (Messrs. T. K. Bayly, Harford, Woodward, W. H. Miles, George, Fry, and Sir R. Symes) subsequently became, members of the Council.

Mr. Phippen's first election took place in the interval between his ceasing to be a Councillor and his appointment as Alderman, and Mr. Lockley ceased to be a Councillor at the end of his first Shrievalty. Only two of the Sheriffs since 1835 (Alderman Phippen and Sir R. Symes) also served as Mayor.

There are at present (March, 1898) 27 living who have been elected to the office of High Sheriff, of whom 10 (Sir R. Symes, Aldermen Smith, Hare, Fox, Harvey, Fry, and Pethick, Messrs. Baker, Todd, and Godwin) are present members of the Council.

[NOTE.—The Town Council, at a meeting held on February 15, 1836, had recommended a list, consisting of 12 Liberals (including
Mr. H. Ricketts, who was nominated by that party, though returned to the Council by, and generally voting with, the Conservatives), and 12 Conservatives, but the Home
Secretary (Lord John Russell) struck out the names of six Conservatives, viz. Thomas Daniel,
Charles L. Walker, James
George, Abraham Hilhouse,
James N. Franklyn, and
Nicholas Roch. On March 29 the appointment of magistrates in Bristol and other boroughs was the subject of a warm debate in the House of Commons, in the course of which Sir R. R.

Vyvyan, M.P. for Bristol, charged Lord John Russell with being influenced by corrupt motives in the selections he had made from the names submitted to him. On April 18 the Council carried a resolution (by 33 votes to 23) to ask the Home Secretary to state the reasons for excluding these gentlemen, but this was, of course,
refused. In this division
Mr. H. Ricketts and all the Liberals present voted with the minority; all the other Conservatives present, including Alderman Harley and Mr. C. George, with the majority. The four members absent were Alderman
R. Ricketts and Mr. F.
Ricketts (Liberals), and Alderman Wait and Mr.
T. Daniel (Conservatives.)]

[On September 6, 1836, the Town Council unanimously agreed to recommend a list of 18, consisting of an equal number from each party, the Conservatives proposing Aldermen Vining and Watson, and Councillors Daniel, Bush, Payne, Savage, Phippen, Smith, and P. Maze, jun.; the Liberals Councillors Cunningham, Herapath, Thomas, Weare, G. E. Sanders, and Ash, and Messrs. Visger, Taunton, and Tothill. The Court of Chancery, however, insisted that the number should be 21, and that not more than 12 of them should be members of the Council. This necessitated the omission of three of the names suggested, and as the Liberals had proposed six Councillors and the Conservatives nine, it was proposed to omit three from the Conservative list and retain the whole of the Liberal list, the latter party also claiming to name two of the six required to complete the number, and thereby secure the majority on the Board. The Conservatives refused to agree to this, and it was finally resolved, on September 13, by a majority of 21 to 14, that the Council should take no further steps in the matter and should decline to make any nominations at all. The result was that the Court of Chancery named a list of 18 Liberals, including the whole of their original nominees, with only three Conservatives. In the division of September 13 the majority consisted of 18 Conservatives, viz., the Mayor (Alderman Fripp), Aldermen Pinney, Harley, Gibbs, and Winwood, Messrs. Acraman, Payne, Goldney, J. N. Franklyn, King, C. George, Gwyer, Hare, Smith, Nash, Powell, Phippen, and Howell, and three Liberals (Messrs. Thomas, Drake, and L. Ricketts). The minority of 14 was composed of 11 Liberals (Messrs. Weare, G. E. Sanders, Brown, Ash, T. R. Sanders, Cunningham, Wayte, Hall, Moore, Harwood, and Herapath), and three Conservatives (Alderman Watson and Messrs. Savage and J. George). Twenty Conservatives and eight Liberals were absent from the division.]

TRUSTEES OF THE BRISTOL MUNICIPAL CHARITIES.—

Continued.

The appointments in 1836 and 1852 were made by the Lord Chancellor, those since that date by the Charity Commissioners.

The original batch consisted of 18 Liberals and 3 Conservatives. Of those subsequently appointed, 21 have been Liberals, 17 Conservatives, and 2 Liberal Unionists. The existing trustees, 17 in number (marked in the list with a *), are divided thus—7 Liberals, 9 Conservatives, and 1 Liberal Unionist. The last survivor of those included in the first nominations was Mr. Michael Castle, who was a member of the board for 55 years. The three senior trustees at present are Mr. H. Thomas, Mr. Harford, and Sir W. H. Wills, who were appointed in 1865.

CHAIRMEN.

1836 November 7, James Cunningham

1852 July 2, George Thomas

[Elected by 9 votes (Messrs. Powell, Visger, Castle, Davies, Wills, Sanders, Terrell, E. B. Fripp, and Coathupe) to 6 (Sir J. K. Habersfield, Messrs. W. Fripp, Phippen, Savage, Fisher and Vining) for Mr. Cunningham.]

1869 August 17, Frederick Terrell

1875 May 28, Herbert Thomas.

SECRETARIES.

1836 November 11, Thomas John Manchee, died June 11, 1853

[Elected by 13 votes to 8 for Mr. John Harford. The minority consisted of the three Conservative Trustees and Messrs. G. Thomas, Ward, Herapath, Bengough, and C. B. Fripp.]

1853 July 22, Alfred Robertson Miller, died January 24, 1874

1870 September 23, James Hurman London, resigned September, 1870; died November 30, 1872

1873 January 10, Frederick Wentworth Newton.

BRISTOL SCHOOL BOARD.—Continued.

[The Conservatives proposed seven official candidates—the Revs. H. G. Randall and A. Rogers. Messrs. Hare, Baker, Jose, Inskip, and Wills; the Liberals five—Messrs. Whitwill, Fry, Thomas, and the Revs. J. Percival and F. W. Gotch; Messrs. Alsop and Lane were nominated by the Conservative Working Men's Association; Dr. Waddy and Mr. Budgett represented the general Wesleyan body; Mr. Lawes the Free Methodist churches. Mr. Caldicott was originally in the official Liberal list, but withdrew from it when it was reduced to five, and his candidature was then taken up by his old pupils and personal friends. Mr. Ford, the Roman Catholic candidate, was the political leader of the Conservative party. Mr. Turner was supported as a practical school-master. Messrs. Walker, Norris, and Clifton were all in favour of denominational education, and their candidature, by dividing the votes of their party, gave the majority to the Liberals.]

William Count (Radical Operative)	2,134
George Powell (Radical Operative)	1,430

[The Conservatives nominated five official candidates—Messrs. Woodward, Edwards, George, and the Revs. T. C. Price and F. V. Mather. The Liberals adopted eight, including Mr. Hall, who had previously represented the Wesleyan body, and Mr. Jones, a working man. Mr. Kearsey was brought forward by the Working Men's Conservative Association, and the Rev. C. Witherby, who stood independently of party, was a Conservative Churchman. Mr. Inskip, who was one of the official Conservative candidates in 1877, now represented the Protestant League. Mr. Powell was nominated by the Working Men's Reform Association. Messrs. Hunt and Count also stood, independently of each other and of the remaining working men candidates, in the Labour interest.]

Of the lady members 3 represented the Conservatives, 7 (including the only married ladies on the board, Mrs. Grenfell and Mrs. Swann) the Liberals, and 1 (Miss Richardson) the temperance party.

BRISTOL INCORPORATION OF THE POOR.

GOVERNORS & DEPUTY-GOVERNORS.

The list of Governors, Deputy-Governors, and Treasurers of the Incorporation of the Poor has not, so far as I know, been printed before, except that in a work by Mr. James Johnson entitled "Transactions of the Corporation of the Poor in the City of Bristol during a period of 120 years," published in 1826, the succession is given to the year 1822 inclusive. Mr. Johnson's lists are, however, exceedingly inaccurate, especially in the earlier portion. By the kindness of Mr. J. J. Simpson, the present Clerk to the Board of Guardians (who has, at a time when the pressure of his official duties was exceptionally heavy, put himself to a good deal of trouble in aiding my researches), I have been enabled to have access to the Court books of the Corporation, and thus correct Mr. Johnson's errors of omission and commission, and to bring the lists up to date with, I hope, complete accuracy.—A.B.B.

CLERKS.

Messrs. Osborne and Ward, the solicitors to the Incorporation, who had acted as clerks for many years previously, were formally appointed annually from 1823 to 1856, inclusive. In 1857 a clerk was appointed as a distinct officer.

1857, January 16, Walter Benjamin Wilmot (went to Lambeth as clerk to the Guardians in January, 1867, and died February, 1897).

1867, January 25, Edward Greenfield Doggett; died February 18, 1887.
1887, March 18, Jesse James Simpson

104 individuals have been elected to the Governorship, of whom 50 served the office of Mayor of Bristol. Of these Mr. Wallis, the first Governor, was Mayor at the date of his first election. Mr. Habersfield also was Mayor both at his first and second elections. Mr. Haythorne was elected Mayor while serving as Governor, and Mr. John Cave several years after he had ceased to hold that office. Every Governor elected from 1697 to 1745 was an ex-Mayor, with the exception of Sir J. Duddleston. Messrs. Edwards, R. Smith, W. Hart, Brickdale, Tyler, Chamberlain, and Fisher. All the Governors from 1766 to 1775, and from 1784 to 1791 inclusive, except Mr. Vaughan, were also ex-Mayors, as were Messrs. Pelouin, Daniel, Wait, and Castle. Messrs. R. Vaughan, jun., Shaw, and Robinson attained to the Mayoralty after passing the chair of the Incorporation.

Of the 145 who served the office of Deputy-Governor, only 24 subsequently occupied the chair of the Incorporation. Among these were the first three Deputies (Messrs. Swymmer, Jackson, and Sir J. Duddleston), five of those who held that office between 1705 and 1747 (Messrs. A. Elton, sen., Walter, Tyler, Brickdale, and Baker), and six elected between 1812 and 1872 (Messrs. T. Stock, Johnson, Goldney, Wetherman, Robinson, and Thomas). No Deputy elected between 1747 and 1812 was promoted to the chair; on the other hand, of 14 Deputy-Governors elected since 1872 only four did not subsequently become Governors, viz., Messrs. Levy, Coulthard, T. Protheroe, and Boutflower.

I am indebted to Mr. Simpson for the following historical note:—In May, 1696, the Incorporation of the Poor of the City and County of Bristol was constituted by the Bristol Poor Act, 1696. This was the first Board of Guardians in England and Wales for the purpose of providing relief for the destitute poor, and establishing workhouses for their maintenance.

In 1826 the Incorporation was reconstituted, and its duties slightly varied and increased.

In 1856 the Poor Law Board compelled the Incorporation, after a long resistance, to submit to the general authority which that Board claimed, and accordingly early in January, 1857, the by-laws of the Incorporation were rescinded, and on January 16 Mr. E. S. Robinson and Mr. H. F. Lawes were elected respectively Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Board of Guardians for Bristol Union, and Mr. Wilmot, previously Master of St. Peter's Hospital, was appointed Clerk to the Guardians. The Incorporation, however, continued to exist, and at the next annual election (April 9, 1857) Messrs. Robinson and Lawes were chosen Governor and Deputy-Governor respectively, and after that date the Chairmanship and Vice-Chairmanship of the Board of Guardians were united to the offices of Governor and Deputy-Governor of the Incorporation of the Poor. Mr. Wilmot was at the same time appointed Clerk to the Incorporation.

From 1696 to 1837 the Incorporation had exercised authority over the whole city and county of Bristol, but at the extension of the boundaries by the Municipal Corporations Act of 1835 no change was made in the area under the supervision of that body; consequently the Unions of Clifton (afterwards re-named Barton Regis) and Bedminster being established in accordance with the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, the city, for Poor Law purposes, formed part of three Unions. In 1897 the boundaries of the city were again extended, and the Act provided for the inclusion of the whole of the city thus extended in one Poor Law Union. This Act came into operation from March 31, 1898, at which date the Incorporation of the Poor was dissolved, the portions of the enlarged city hitherto comprised in Barton Regis, Bedminster, and Keynsham Unions were transferred to the new Union, and a Board of Guardians for the whole city came into office on April 1, 1898, when Major George Ferris Rumsey, who had for several years presided over the Barton Regis Union, was elected Chairman, Messrs. Charles Edward Douglas Boutflower and Samuel Lloyd Vice-Chairmen, pro tem., and Mr. Jesse James Simpson was appointed Clerk. On April 12 the Chairman and Vice-Chairmen were re-elected to serve for the year 1898-9, and Messrs. Osborne, Ward, Vassall, and Co. were appointed solicitors to the Board, their firm having acted as legal advisers to the Incorporation of the Poor continuously from 1760 to its dissolution—a period of 138 years.

On April 7, 1898, Mr. Edwin Hilton Naish was appointed Treasurer.

SOCIETY OF MERCHANT VENTURERS.

1605—1897.

The following succession of Masters, Wardens, and Treasurers of the Society of Merchant Venturers is practically a reproduction of the list, carefully compiled by Mr. G. H. Pope, the present Treasurer, which was published in the Times and Mirror of July 21, 1885, and a portion of which was reproduced in Mr. Latimer's "Annals of Bristol in the 18th Century." I have corrected a few misprints, and brought the lists up to date, noting the names of those who were members of the Corporation. I have to acknowledge the courtesy of Mr. Pope, who has given me every assistance in preparing the record.

*Subsequently } Served the Office of Master.
 †Previously }

The Officers are elected annually on Charter Day, November 10, except when that day falls on a Sunday, the election then taking place on the 11th. The elections recorded in these lists took place at this time except when otherwise stated.

Since 1855 it has been usual to hold the offices of Junior Warden, Senior Warden, and Master in immediate succession, the only deviations from this custom having been in the cases of (1) Mr. M. D. Protheroe, who was Junior Warden in 1856-7 and Master in 1858-9, the Senior Wardenship in the intervening year being taken by Mr. Acraman; (2) Mr. E. T. Lucas, who died when Senior Warden in 1863; (3) Mr. C. Ringer, who was unable to take the Master's chair for 1867-8 through ill-health, dying a few months after vacating the office of Warden; (4) Mr. E. B. Hill, who was elected Senior Warden in 1893, without having taken the Junior Wardenship, which in the preceding year was filled by a Past Master (Mr. Woodward).

The total number of persons who have served the office of Master from 1605 to the present time is 254, of whom 28 were elected more than once. H. Hooke was chosen seven times, Hugh Browne and J. Jackson four times each; M. Haviland, Robert Aldworth, and J. Barker three times; and J. Whitson, T. James, J. Gonnige, R. Longe, Sir W. Creswicke, W. Tocknell, Sir R. Hart, G.

SOCIETY OF MERCHANT VENTURERS.—Continued.

Lane, Sir W. Hayman, E. Tocknell, R. Yate, S. Price, P. Saunders, Sir W. Daines, James Hollidge, T. Hort, W. Clarke, J. Bachelier, H. Watts, J. A. Jones, R. G. Barrow, and F. F. Fox twice each. It may be noticed that from 1692 to 1708 eight Masters in succession were re-elected, whereas since the latter date this has only occurred three times. In 155 years (1708-1862) there was no instance.

Ninety-nine of the Masters served the office of Mayor, of whom nine were Chief Magistrates at the date of their election to the chair of the Merchant Venturers, and nine were chosen during their Mastership. Thirty-nine had already served as Mayors, and 42 were subsequently elected. Between 1605 and 1666 only seven Masters did not attain to the Mayoralty, all of whom were Sheriffs, viz., John Aldworth, T. Wright, Humphrey Browne, T. Colston, R. Yate (1656), W. Yeamans, and J. Bowen. During the past 60 years only 12 have been elected to the Mastership who have also held the Mayoralty, viz., Messrs. Barrow, J. Savage, Pinney, G. W. Franklyn, R. J. Poole King, T. P. Jose, J. A. Jones, Lane, T. Barnes, S. V. Hare, W. Proctor Baker, and Sir G. Edwards.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Chamber was originally established in 1823, a preliminary meeting being held on January 1st in that year, and the rules adopted at a subsequent meeting on February 25.

In 1848 it ceased to exist, having been for some years in a languishing condition, and was practically merged in the Free Port Association, but there is no extant record of its formal dissolution.

The Free Port Association, which was formed in September, 1846, dissolved itself on September 30, 1850.

It 1851 a movement was initiated for resuscitating the Chamber of Commerce, and a meeting with that object was held on September 4. It was not, however, till January 5, 1853, that the revived Chamber was fully organised. Under the rules then adopted the Master of the Society of Merchant Venturers for the time being was to be ex-officio President of the Chamber, and the Senior and Junior Wardens of that Society two of the four Vice Presidents, the other two being elected for two years, one to retire at each annual meeting, subject to re-election. This arrangement continued till the end of 1857, and at the annual meeting in January, 1858, the rules were amended, and from that date till 1874 the President and two Vice-Presidents were chosen by the members, while the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, elected by the Committee, were the working heads of the Chamber.

In 1874 the Chamber was incorporated, being officially registered on September 16 in that year. From the annual meeting of 1875 to the present time the offices of Chairman and Vice-Chairman have been discontinued, the President and two Vice-Presidents taking the active direction, and being elected by the Council annually.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—Continued.

(The first name in each paragraph is that of President, the second and third are those of Vice-Presidents.)

1823 to 1848.

- 1823, April, Joseph Reynolds ; Thomas Stock and Joseph Cookson ; re-elected February, 1824.
 1825, February, Thomas Stock ; Joseph Cookson and Samuel Harford.
 1826, February 5, Thomas Stock ; Henry Bush and John Matthew Gutch ; re-elected February 5, 1827, and February 4, 1828.
 1829, February 2, Joseph Cookson ; George Eddie Sanders and William Edward Acraman.
 1830, February 1, Thomas Stock ; George Eddie Sanders and William Edward Acraman.
 1831, February 7, Samuel Harford ; George Eddie Sanders and William Singer Jacques.
 1832, February 6, William Singer Jacques ; William Tothill and Richard Jenkins Poole King ; re-elected February 4, 1833.
 1834, February 3, Henry Bush ; Richard Jenkins Poole King and William Edward Acraman ; re-elected February 2, 1835.
 1836, February 1, Henry Bush ; William Edward Acraman, Councillor, and Edward Harley, Alderman.
 1837, February 6, Edward Harley, Alderman ; Richard Jenkins Poole King, Councillor, and John Vining, Alderman ; re-elected February 5, 1838.
 1839, February 4, Richard Jenkins Poole King, Councillor ; Henry Bush, Councillor, and William Done Bushell ; re-elected February 3, 1840, and February 1, 1841.

 1844, February 5, John Vining, Alderman ; Richard Jenkins Poole King, Councillor, and Isaac Rouch.
 1845, February 3, Isaac Rouch ; Edmund Butcher, Alderman, and John Decimus Pountney, Alderman ; re-elected February 2, 1846, and January 29, 1847.

Mr. Rouch presided at the annual meeting on January 31, 1848, and the election of officers for the year was fixed for February 7, but no record can be found of the names of those elected. The original Chamber does not appear to have met again, and had probably ceased to exist before November in that year, as it was not officially represented (as were the Corporation, the Merchant Venturers, the Incorporation of the Poor, and the Free Port Association) at the great Free Port Demonstration on November 15, to celebrate the passing of the Act by which the docks were transferred to the city.

The officers of the Free Port Association, in which the Chamber of Commerce was practically merged, were—President, Robert Bright ; Vice-Presidents, Daniel Cave, Peter Freeland Aiken, George Henry Ames, and Edward Thomas ; Secretary, Leonard Bruton.

President-Elect for 1898—His Honour James Valentine Austin

The sums collected at the dinners are in some reports differently stated, but in no case do they vary very materially.

From 1758 (previous to which date only the Dolphin Society collected) the largest sums have been contributed by the respective societies as follows:—

By the Dolphin—1758, 1759, 1813, 1816, 1818, 1828, 1833 to 1836 inclusive, 1845, 1846, and 1869 to 1897 inclusive.

By the Anchor—1776 to 1812 inclusive, 1814, 1815, 1817, 1819 to 1827 inclusive, 1829 to 1832 inclusive, 1838, 1841, 1843, 1844, 1847, 1848, 1861, 1866, and 1868.

By the Grateful—1760 to 1775 inclusive, 1837, 1839, 1840, 1842, 1849 to 1860 inclusive, 1862 to 1865 inclusive, and 1867.

The smallest sums have been contributed—

By the Dolphin—1760 to 1768 inclusive, 1770 to 1799 inclusive, 1801, 1802, 1829, 1831, 1838, 1839, 1847 to 1850 inclusive, 1852 to 1856 inclusive, 1858, 1860, 1861, 1863 to 1866 inclusive, and 1868.

By the Anchor—1769, 1813, 1833 to 1837 inclusive, 1840, 1842, 1845, 1846, 1851, 1857, 1859, 1862, 1867, 1875, 1876, 1879, 1881, 1888, 1889, 1890, and 1894.

By the Grateful—1758, 1759, 1800, 1803 to 1812 inclusive, 1814 to 1828 inclusive, 1830, 1832, 1841, 1843, 1844, 1869 to 1874 inclusive, 1876, 1877, 1880, 1882 to 1887 inclusive, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1895, 1896, and 1897. ,

THE COLSTON SOCIETIES.— Continued.

The largest collection made by the Dolphin was £1,890 12s. 1d. in the year 1889, under the presidency of Mr. Jere Osborne.

The largest collection made by the Anchor was £1,204, in the year 1893, under the presidency of Mr. J. W. Arrowsmith.

The largest collection made by the Grateful was £1,144 4s., in the year 1840, under the presidency of Mr. J. K. Haberfield.

It is somewhat remarkable that five of the twelve gentlemen who filled the chair of the Anchor Society between 1819 and 1830—Messrs. G. H. Ames, C. Pinney, J. Lean, W. Claxton, and R. Bright—subsequently became Conservatives; so also did Mr. J. F. Edgar and Col. H. D. Baillie, presidents in 1798 and 1807 respectively. Also nine of the presidents between 1866 and 1886 were included in the Unionist section of the party after the Home Rule split, viz. Messrs. G. Wills, L. Fry, C. Thomas, W. Pethick, J. W. Hall, E. P. Wills, F. J. Fry, F. Wills, and J. C. Godwin.

The ascendancy of the Whig party in the Corporation at the end of the 18th and beginning of the 19th century is illustrated by the fact that of 32 presidents of the Anchor between 1775 and 1806, only 9 were not members of that body, while holding the chair of the Whig society, and of these two, Messrs. J. Harford and S. Span, were elected to the Common Council almost immediately afterwards; while another, Mr. M. Castle, had been elected to the Council, and declined to serve. Mr. Kirkpatrick, the president of 1780, was afterwards Town Clerk, Mr. P. Farr was the brother of one of the aldermen, and Mr. Pope's father had been an alderman a few years before. On the other hand, only four presidents of the Dolphin elected between 1729 and 1832 were members of the Corporation at the time, viz., Mr. G. Daubeny, Alderman Vaughan, Alderman Daniel, and Mr. Sheriff Gardiner.

PRESIDENTS OF THE COLSTON SOCIETY

(Commonly called the Parent Society).

This list, which has never appeared in print before, was originally communicated to me by Alderman Fox, and I have since been enabled, by the kindness of Alderman Thatcher, to perfect it from the minutes of the Society. I am much indebted to these gentlemen and to Alderman Cope-Proctor for facilitating my researches.

SECRETARIES.

1825 Samuel Lucas
1841 John Lucas

1878 Charles William Cope-
Proctor

Sir G. Edwards presided over three of the four Colston Societies, viz., Parent, Dolphin, and Grateful. 14 gentlemen have occupied the chair of two of them, viz.:

Parent and Dolphin:—Messrs. S. Smith, Dr. Monerieffe. W. Fripp, S. V. Hare, and C. S. Clarke.

Dolphin and Grateful:—Sir J. K. Haberfield.

Parent and Grateful:—Messrs. J. Powell*, H. Abbot, and F. F. Fox.

Anchor and Grateful:—Sir H. Protheroe, Sir J. D. Weston, Messrs. Rowand, E. S. Robinson, and F. J. Fry.

[* The early minutes of the Grateful Society being lost, it is impossible to identify with certainty the John Powell who was President in 1772, but he was probably the Collector of Customs, who was President of the Parent in 1783 and Master of the Merchant Venturers in 1779. The President of the Parent was not identical with the President of the Dolphin in 1762.]

SOCIETY OF ST. STEPHEN'S RINGERS.

The date of the foundation of this Society is not known. It existed in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and its annual meeting is held, unless under exceptional circumstances, on November 17, the anniversary of her accession. The ordinances of the Society date from 1620. The early minute books are lost, the oldest now in possession of the Society beginning with 1732, at which period John Hobbs was the senior surviving, and Thomas Horwood the immediate, Past Master. The records in the existing minute books were not always made with the accuracy which has marked the entries of more recent years; there are several errors both of omission and commission; but with the valuable co-operation of my friend, Mr. Fuller Eberle, who has given a great deal of time to the solution of the difficulties thus presented, I have been enabled to compile what I believe is a complete and accurate list of Masters and Wardens of this Antient Society from 1732 to the present time. The succession of Wardens has never before appeared in print, and that of Masters, which was published some years ago in the Times and Mirror, was very far from accurate. It may be interesting to readers of the Times and Mirror to notice that the first press mention of the Society's meetings is contained in the Bristol Mirror of December 7, 1822, and that the Father of the Society is Mr. T. D. Taylor, who was admitted to membership as far back as 1846.

[In the following lists the first date is that of election, the second that of the dinner, at which the Master presided in person or by deputy. It will be noticed that during the last 30 years it has been usual to go through the regular gradation of Junior and Senior Warden and Master in successive years, as is the case with the Society of Merchant Venturers.]

(The first name in each paragraph is that of Master, the second and third are those of Wardens.)

1732—1733, Stephen Baugh ; Christopher Willoughby and Walter Middleton.

1733, Sept. 29—1738, James Laroche, Common Councillor ; Michael Becher and John Gythens.

[No meeting was held between 1733 and 1738.]

Thomas Williams

1829, Oct. 12—1830, Thomas Camplin, Alderman; William Strong and James Gillett

1830, Oct. 30—1832, John Haythorne, Alderman; Richard Davis and Jacob Strickland

[Owing to the riots, no dinner was held in 1831, and at the meeting of 1832 Richard Smith presided for Alderman Haythorne.]

1832, Nov. 14—1833, John Miller; Charles Peter Branstrom Howell and Richard Stoate

[Mr. Stoate declined to serve, and was succeeded by Robert Mullett Evans.]

1833, Nov. 7, Thomas Mullett Evans; Charles Innes Pocock and Richard Robinson, jun.

[Mr. Evans died May 5, 1834, and there is no record of any dinner having been held in that year. Joseph Grazebrook appears to have been elected Warden in place of Mr. Pocock.]

1834, Nov. 12—1835, Edward Sampson; Robert Gould and Alfred Bleek

[Richard Robinson, jun., served instead of Mr. Gould. The dinner for the year 1835 was not held till December 4, when Mr. Sampson, whose year of office had expired, presided.]

1835, Nov. 17—1836, Charles Ludlow Walker, Councillor; William Lury Riddle and Joseph Grazebrook

1836, Nov. 7—1837, John Kerle Habertfield, Alderman; Samuel Gustavus Clements and William Morgan

Vining

[John Gunning presided at the dinner.]

- 1862-3, James Creswell Wall; Edward W. Perrin and Charles F.
Kemball

[The minutes for this year are lost (apparently they were never entered), and I have been unable to find the name of the Master originally elected. Messrs Wall and Joseph Almond are put down as Wardens in a MS. list, but the newspapers in reporting the dinner of 1863 record that Mr H. R. Fargus presided in the absence of the Master, Mr. Wall, owing to a family bereavement, and that Messrs. Perrin and Kemball were the Wardens. Mr.
Almond served as Warden in the following year.]

- 1863, Nov. 7—1864, James Creswell Wall; Joseph Almond and John Wood

- 1864, Nov. 7—1865, Joseph Almond; Frederick James and John Glasson

Fisher

[Mr. Fisher resigned, and John Frederick Lucas was chosen in his place. Nov. 7, 1866, to act at the dinner.]

- 1866, Nov. 7—1867, Robert Gray Barnes; William Charles Beloe and Mervyn Kersteman King

- 1867, Nov. 7—1869, Mervyn Kersteman King; Ralph Henry Cole
and Richard Cripps

[There was no dinner in 1868; it was originally postponed on account of the General Election taking place in November, and afterwards abandoned out of respect to the memory of Frederick Fargus and John Wood, recently deceased. On November 11, 1868, Francis Frederick Fox, Alderman, was elected Warden for the intended dinner in that year, in place of Mr. Cole, and on Dec. 3, 1868,
Mr. Cripps was re-elected Warden for 1869, with Frederick John Fargus as his colleague.]

- 1869, Nov. 11—1870, Richard Cripps; Henry Grace Hare and Lewis
Morris

[Both Wardens declined to serve, and were succeeded Nov. 11,
1870, by James Anthony Gardner and William Lemon.]

THE GLOUCESTERSHIRE SOCIETY.

The Presidents of this ancient charitable society include a large number of Bristol citizens, whose names occur in other lists connected with the city. The following succession of Stewards (as they were originally styled) and Presidents has been furnished me by the secretary, Mr. F. A. Jenkins, and I have noted those who were members of the Bristol Corporation at the dates of their respective appointments.

The society was established on December 1, 1657. Up to 1892 the society's year ended in August; in that year it was decided that in future it should end in December, and Mr. Percival, the President elected in 1892 for 1892-3, retained office till the close of 1893.

The annual dinner of the society was discontinued after 1890.

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT FOR BRISTOL.

1529 — 1896.

The following list embraces a continuous series of the members elected to represent Bristol in Parliament since the year 1529, with the exceptions of the brief Parliaments of 1536 and 1545, for which no returns are extant. It is impossible to obtain a complete series for the period before 1529, as the returns for many of the earlier Parliaments are quite lost. The lists given in Barrett's and Pryce's histories are very defective, and at the same time do not indicate the Parliaments for which returns are wanting. So far as I have been able to discover, there is no extant list which is quite accurate and complete for the period since 1529, and I have therefore endeavoured to supply that want as far as possible.

For the Parliaments preceding the Revolution of 1688 I have added to the date of election that of dissolution, inasmuch as there were frequently considerable intervals between the conclusion of one and the election of a succeeding Parliament. For the Parliaments since 1688 this is not necessary, a dissolution of the old having always been followed immediately by the summoning of the new Parliament.

1529—1536, Thomas Jubbes; Richard Abyngdon (Mayor 1525-1526).

[These names are given in the State papers 21 Henry VIII., Vol. iv., No. 6,043 (2). Barrett and Pryce give John Shipward instead of Jubbes, whom he may possibly have succeeded, or vice versa, during the continuance of this Parliament.]

1536 (June—July), no return found.

1539—1540, Nicholas Thorne (Mayor 1544-1545); Roger Cooke (Mayor 1534-1535, 1541-1542, 1551-1552).

1542—1544, David Broke, Recorder (afterwards Serjeant-at-Law and Chief Baron of the Exchequer); Robert Elyott (Mayor 1540-1541).

1545—1547, no return found.

1547—1552, Robert Keiway, Recorder (M.P. for Salisbury in the preceding Parliament); John Drewys.

1553 (February—March), John Walshe, Recorder; David Harris (Mayor 1550-1551).

1553 (September—December), John Walshe, Recorder; David Harris 1554 (March—May), John Walshe, Recorder; Thomas Lanseden (Sheriff 1543-1544).

1554—1555, John Walshe, Recorder. (Second name not preserved.)

1555 (October—December), John Walshe, Recorder; William Chester, sen., Alderman (Mayor 1537-1538, 1552-1553).

1558 (January—November), William Tyndall (Sheriff 1547-1548); Robert Butler.

[Mr. Tyndall died this year, but there is no record of his successor. In this Parliament Mr. Walshe sat for Somersetshire.]

1559 (January—May), John Walshe, Recorder (made Serjeant-at-Law April, 1559); William Carr (Sheriff 1546-1547; Mayor 1560-1561).

1563—1567, John Walshe, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder; William Carr.

[Mr. Walshe was appointed a Judge of the Common Pleas in February, 1553, and succeeded by Thomas Chester (Sheriff 1560-1561; Mayor 1569-1570). Mr. Chester subsequently represented Gloucestershire.]

1571 (March—May), John Popham, Recorder; Philip Langley (Mayor 1567-1568).

1572—1583, John Popham, Recorder; Philip Langley.

[Serjeant Popham was appointed Solicitor-General in 1579, elected Speaker in January, 1581, and made Attorney-General in June, 1581. He afterwards became Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench.]

1584—1585, Thomas Hannam, Recorder; Richard Cole (Sheriff 1569-1570; Mayor 1585-1586).

1586—1587, Thomas Hannam, Recorder; Thomas Aldworth (Mayor 1583-1584).

1588—1589, Thomas Hannam, Recorder (made a Serjeant-at-Law 1589); William Salterne (Sheriff 1575-1576).

[Mr. Salterne died, and was succeeded by Thomas Aldworth.]

1593 (February—April), Thomas Hannam, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder; Richard Cole, Alderman.

1597—1598, George Snigge, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder; Thomas James, Alderman.

1601 (September—December), George Snigge, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder; John Hopkins, Alderman.

1604—1611, Sir George Snigge, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder; Thomas James, Alderman.

[Sir George Snigge was appointed a Baron of the Exchequer in October, 1604; on November 9, 1605, his seat was declared vacant and a new writ issued.]

1605, November 11, John Whitson, Alderman. vice Snigge.

1614 (March—June), Thomas James, Alderman; John Whitson, Alderman.

1620—1622, John Whitson, Alderman; John Guy, Alderman.

1624—1625, John Guy, Alderman; John Barker, Common Councillor

1625 (April—August), John Whitson, Alderman; Nicholas Hyde, Recorder.

[Mr. Hyde was afterwards Lord Chief Justice of the King's Bench.]

1626 (January—June), John Whitson, Alderman; John Doughty, Alderman.

1628—1629, John Doughty, Alderman; John Barker, Common Councillor.

1640 (March—May), John Glanville, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder; Humphrey Hooke, Alderman.

1640 (October) [the Long Parliament], Humphrey Hooke, Alderman; Richard Longe, Alderman.

[Messrs. Hooke and Longe were expelled the House on the charge of being monopolists May 12, 1642, and new writs issued.]

1642 (June), Sir John Glanville, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder; John Tayler, Alderman.

[Mr. Tayler was "disabled" for adhering to the King on February 5, 1644, and was killed at the siege of Bristol September 9, 1645. Sir John Glanville was also "disabled" on September 29, 1645, on which day new writs were issued to fill both seats.]

1646 (January 26), Richard Aldworth, Alderman; Luke Hodges, Common Councillor (elected Alderman September, 1646).

[This Parliament was forcibly removed by Cromwell April 20, 1653, but restored May, 1659, and finally dissolved in March, 1660.]

1654—1655, Robert Aldworth; Miles Jackson, Alderman.

1656—1658, Robert Aldworth; John Doddridge, Recorder.

1659 (January—April), Robert Aldworth; Joseph Jackson, Alderman.

1660 (April—December), John Stephens, Recorder; John Knight, sen. (elected Common Councillor June, 1660).

[Admiral William Penn was an unsuccessful candidate.]

1661, John Knight, sen., Common Councillor (elected Alderman April, 1662; knighted September 5, 1663); the Earl of Ossory and Sir Humphrey Hooke, (double return)

1661. May 16, the Earl of Ossory seated, Sir H. Hooke having renounced his election.

[Lord Ossory was created an English Peer in September, 1666, and no new writ was issued to fill his place, the validity of the election of 1661 being referred to the Committee of Elections.]

1666 (October 30), Sir Humphrey Hooke, seated by the House on the report of the Committee of Elections that he had a majority of votes in 1661.

[Sir H. Hooke died October 16, 1677, and a new writ was issued January 28, 1678.]

1678 (February 11), vice Hooke, Sir Robert Cann, Bart., Alderman.

[This Parliament, which had sat since 1661, was dissolved January 24, 1679.]

1679 (February—July), Sir John Knight, Alderman; Sir Robert Cann, Bart., Alderman.

1679—1681, Sir John Knight, Alderman (Tory); Sir Robert Cann, Bart., Alderman (Tory).

[Robert Henley (Whig) was an unsuccessful candidate, and petitioned against the return. Sir Robert Cann was expelled the House on October 28, 1680, for expressing disbelief in the Popish Plot. On December 20 Mr. Henley was declared by the Committee of Elections to have been duly elected in 1679, but the House disagreed, and voted the election of Sir R. Cann a void one, and a new writ was issued.]

1630 (December), no official return extant. It has been stated that Sir Walter Long, Bart., was elected. The Parliament was dissolved in the following week.

1681, Thomas Earle, Common Councillor (Tory), 1,491; Sir Richard Hart, Alderman (Tory), 1,482; Sir Robert Atkyns, K.B., Recorder (Whig), 1,345; Sir John Knight, Alderman (Tory), 1,301.

[Sir John Knight, who was a Tory, being in favour of the Exclusion Bill, and a believer in the Popish Plot, was supported by the Whigs. Mr. Earle was rather a Whig than a Tory, but supported by the latter party, being opposed to the strong anti-Catholic policy of the Whig leaders. The Parliament was dissolved in the same month in which it was elected.]

1685—1687, Sir Richard Crumpe, Alderman (Tory); Sir John Churchill, Recorder and Master of the Rolls (Tory).

[Sir John Churchill died in the summer of 1685, and a new writ was issued November 9.]

1685 (December 10), vice Churchill, Sir Richard Hart, Alderman (Tory).

1689, Sir Richard Hart, Alderman (Tory); Sir John Knight, Common Councillor (Tory).

1690, Sir Richard Hart, Alderman (Tory); Sir John Knight, Common Councillor (Tory).

[The seats were contested by William Powlett, Serjeant-at-Law and Recorder, and Robert Yate, Common Councillor, in the Whig interest, who subsequently petitioned against the return.]

1695, Sir Thomas Day, Alderman (Whig); Robert Yate, Common Councillor (Whig).

[Although there is no extant record of the fact, it is probable that Sir R. Hart and Sir J. Knight were the Tory candidates at this election.]

1698, Robert Yate, Common Councillor (Whig), 1,136; Sir Thomas Day, Alderman (Whig), 976; Sir John Knight, Common Councillor (Tory), 785; Sir Richard Hart, Alderman (Tory), 421; John Cary, 279.

1701 (February—November), Robert Yate, Alderman (Whig); Sir William Daines, Common Councillor (Whig).

1701 (December), Robert Yate, Alderman (Whig); Sir William Daines, Common Councillor (Whig).

1702, Robert Yate, Alderman (Whig); Sir William Daines, Common Councillor (Whig).

1705, Robert Yate, Alderman (Whig); Sir William Daines, Alderman (Whig).

1708, Robert Yate, Alderman (Whig); Sir William Daines, Alderman (Whig).

1710, Edward Colston (Tory), 1,785; Joseph Earle (Tory), 1,529; Sir William Daines, Alderman (Whig), 940; Robert Yate, Alderman (Whig), 744.

1713, Joseph Earle (Tory), 653; Thomas Edwards, jun. (Tory), 474; Sir William Daines, Alderman (Whig), 189.

[Mr. Earle, whose Toryism was wavering, and who soon after was expelled from the Loyal Society and openly joined the Whigs, was supported by both parties at this election. (See Latimer's "Annals of Bristol in the 18th Century," page 102.) Sir W. Daines petitioned against the return.]

1715, Sir William Daines, Alderman (Whig), 1,936; Joseph Earle (Whig), 1,899; Philip Freke, Common Councillor (Tory), 1,991; Thomas Edwards, jun. (Tory), 1,976.

[Although Messrs. Freke and Edwards polled a majority, the Whig Sheriffs returned Sir W. Daines and Colonel Earle. The other candidates petitioned, but found it impossible to obtain justice from a Whig House of Commons.]

1722, Joseph Earle (Whig), 2,141; Sir Abraham Elton, Bart., Alderman (Whig), 1,869; William Hart (Tory), 1,743.

1727, John Scrope (Whig), 765; Abraham Elton, jun., (Whig), 411; William Hart (Tory), 386; Joseph Earle (Whig), 4.

[Mr. Scrope, who was Secretary to the Treasurer, was elected Recorder July, 1728. Mr. Elton succeeded to the Baronetcy on the death of his father, February 9, 1728.]

1734, Sir Abraham Elton, Bart., Alderman (Whig), 2,428; Thomas Coster (Tory), 2,071; John Scrope (Whig), 1,866.

[Mr. Coster died September 30, 1739; new writ issued Nov. 15.]

1739 (December 12), vice Coster, Right Hon. Edward Southwell (Whig), 2,651; Henry Combe, Common Councillor (Whig), 2,203.

[Mr. Southwell, who was Secretary of State for Ireland, was an opponent of Sir Robert Walpole's Government, and received the unanimous support of the Tories.]

1741, Sir Abraham Elton, Bart., Alderman (Whig); Right Hon. Edward Southwell (Whig).

[Sir A. Elton was, like his colleague, an opponent of Walpole in the latter years of his administration. He died Oct. 19, 1742; new writ November 16.]

1742 (November 24), vice Elton, Robert Hoblyn (Tory).

[Sir A. Elton, Bart., Mayor, son of the late member, was a candidate, but did not go to a poll.]

1747, Right Hon. Edward Southwell (Whig); Robert Hoblyn (Tory).

1754, Robert Nugent (Whig), 2,592; Richard Beckford (Tory), 2,245; Sir John Philipps, Bart. (Tory), 2,160.

[Mr. Nugent, who was a Lord of the Treasury, was appointed a Vice-Treasurer of Ireland in December, 1759, and sworn a member of the Privy Council Dec. 15. A new writ was ordered December 19. Mr. Beckford died January 24, 1756; new writ ordered February 23.]

1756 (March 17), vice Beckford, Jarrit Smith (Tory), 2,418; John Spencer (Whig), 2,347.

1759 (December 26), the Right Hon. Robert Nugent (Whig), re-elected.

1761, the Right Hon. Robert Nugent (Whig); Jarrit Smith (Tory).

[Mr. Smith was created a Baronet in January, 1763. Mr. Nugent was appointed First Lord of Trade, and created Viscount Clare in the Irish peerage December, 1766. New writ ordered December 10.]

1766 (December 15), the Right Hon. Viscount Clare (Whig), re-elected.

1768, the Right Hon. Viscount Clare (Whig); Matthew Brickdale, Common Councillor (Tory).

[Lord Clare was appointed a Vice-Treasurer of Ireland in June, 1768; new writ ordered June 21.]

1768 (June 27), the Right Hon. Viscount Clare (Whig), re-elected.

[Lord Clare, though nominally a Whig, was a supporter of the King's American policy, and in effect a Tory.]

1774, Henry Cruger, jun., Common Councillor (Whig), 3,565; Edmund Burke (Whig), 2,707; Matthew Brickdale, Common Councillor (Tory), 2,456; the Right Hon. Viscount Clare (Tory), 283.

[Lord Clare withdrew on the second morning of the poll.]

1780, Matthew Brickdale, Common Councillor (Tory), 2,771; Sir Henry Lippincott, Bart., Common Councillor (Tory), 2,518; Henry Cruger, Common Councillor (Whig), 1,271; Samuel Peach (Whig), 788; Edmund Burke (Whig), 18.

[Mr. Richard Combe, Treasurer of the Ordnance, who had been a candidate in 1768, and retired without going to the poll, came forward as Mr. Brickdale's colleague in the Tory interest, but died on the day before the poll (September 8), and Sir H. Lippincott was then substituted for him. Mr. Burke retired on the morning of the first day's poll, and Mr. Peach was then proposed in conjunction with Mr. Cruger, who was his son-in-law. Sir H. Lippincott died January 1, 1781, and a new writ was ordered January 23.]

1781 (February 24), vice Lippincott, George Daubeny, Common Councillor (Tory), 3,143; Henry Cruger, Common Councillor (Whig), 2,771.

1784, Matthew Brickdale, Common Councillor (Tory), 3,458; Henry Cruger, Alderman (Whig), 3,052; George Daubeny, Common Councillor (Tory), 2,982; Samuel Peach (Whig), 373.

[Messrs. Brickdale and Daubeny, the Tory candidates, had both supported the Fox-North Coalition in the preceding Parliament, while Alderman Cruger, the Whig, was in favour of Pitt.]

1790, the Marquess of Worcester (Tory), 544; Lord Sheffield (Whig), 537; David Lewis (Whig), 12; William Cunninghame (Whig), 5.

[Lord Sheffield, though the nominee of the Whig party, gave a general support to Pitt's Government.]

1796, Charles Bragge (Tory), 714; Lord Sheffield (Whig), 679; Benjamin Hobhouse (Whig), 102; David Lewis (Whig), 4; Samuel Thomas (Whig), 2.

[Mr. Bragge was proposed by Alderman Daubeny and Councillor Baker; Lord Sheffield by the Mayor (Councillor Harvey) and Alderman Noble; Mr. Hobhouse by Messrs. Philip George and M. M. Coates. Mr. Bragge was appointed Treasurer of the Navy in Nov., 1801, and sworn a Privy Councillor on November 18, on which day a new writ was ordered.]

1801 (November 23), the Right Hon. Charles Bragge (Tory), re-elected.

1802, the Right Hon. Charles Bragge (Tory); Evan Baillie, Common Councillor (Whig).

[Sir Frederick Eden, Bart. (Whig), retired before the election. Mr. Bragge, who was proposed at this election by Aldermen Daubeny and Daniel, accepted the Chiltern Hundreds on appointment to the Secretaryship at War in August, 1803, and a new writ was ordered August 11.]

1803 (August 16), the Right Hon. Charles Bragge (Tory), re-elected.

[Mr. Bragge changed his name to Bathurst May 11, 1804.]

1806, the Right Hon. Charles Bathurst (Tory); Evan Baillie, Alderman (Whig).

[Mr. Bathurst, who now held the office of Master of the Mint, was proposed by Alderman Daniel and R. H. Davis; Mr. Baillie by Councillor E. Protheroe and Alderman Ames.]

1807, the Right Hon. Charles Bathurst (Tory) ; Evan Baillie, Alderman (Whig).

[Sir John Jervis, Bart., was nominated by Henry Hunt, the Radical demagogue, but did not go to the poll. Mr. Bathurst was proposed by the Mayor (Councillor Vaughan) and Alderman Daniel; Mr. Baillie by Alderman Claxton and H. Bright. Mr. Bathurst was appointed Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster in June, 1812, and a new writ was ordered June 23.]

1812, July 15, vice Bathurst, Richard Hart Davis (Tory), 1,907; Henry Hunt (Radical), 235.

[Mr. Bathurst was elected for Bodmin on July 1; Mr. Davis resigned his seat for Colchester to stand for Bristol, where he was nominated by T. Jones and G. Goldney, Mr. Hunt being proposed by J. Lidiard and W. Bright.]

1812, Richard Hart Davis (Tory), 2,910; Edward Protheroe, Common Councillor (Whig), 2,435; Sir Samuel Romilly, K.C. (Whig), 1,685; Henry Hunt (Radical), 456.

[Mr. Davis was proposed by T. Jones and Alderman Vaughan; Mr. Protheroe by Councillor Fripp and A. Pope; Sir S. Romilly by the Mayor (M. Castle) and Sir A. Elton, Bart.; Mr. Hunt by W. Pimm and J. Lidiard. There were 2,141 split votes between Davis and Protheroe, and only 89 between the two Whigs. Mr. Protheroe, though a Whig, opposed Catholic Emancipation, and gave considerable support to the measures of the Tory Government, including the suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act in 1817.]

1818, Richard Hart Davis (Tory), 3,377; Edward Protheroe, Councillor (Whig), 2,259; Hugh Duncan Baillie (Whig), 1,684.

[Mr. Davis was proposed by Thomas Græme and J. S. Harford; Mr. Protheroe by Butler Claxton and A. Pope; Colonel Baillie by R. Teast and T. Stocking. Colonel Baillie was brought out in opposition to Mr. Protheroe by the supporters of Catholic Emancipation, and many of the Tories voted for the latter with Mr. Davis.]

1820, Henry Bright (Whig), 2,997; Richard Hart Davis (Tory), 2,811; James Evan Baillie (Whig), 115.

[Mr. Davis was proposed by Councillor Hassell and R. Bush; Mr. Bright by W. P. Lunell and Levi Ames, jun.; Mr. Baillie, who was nominated without his consent, by T. Stocking and J. Cossens.]

1826, Richard Hart Davis (Tory), 3,887; Henry Bright (Whig), 2,315; Edward Protheroe, Common Councillor (Whig), 1,873.

[Mr. Davis was proposed by Councillor Hassell and H. Bush; Mr. Bright by Councillor Pinney and A. Palmer, sen.; Mr. Protheroe, who was nominated without his consent, by J. Harris and J. Bowgin. The contest was between the two Whigs, Mr. Davis being practically unopposed.]

1830, Richard Hart Davis (Tory), 5,012; James Evan Baillie (Whig), 3,378; Edward Protheroe, jun. (Whig), 2,842; James Acland (Radical), 25.

[The contest was between the two Whigs. Mr. Baillie, who represented the West India interest, was proposed by Sir A. Elton, Bart., and Councillor Pinney; Mr. Protheroe, the Anti-Slavery candidate, by C. George and R. Ash; Mr. Davis by H. Bush and J. Cookson.]

1831, James Evan Baillie (Whig); Edward Protheroe, jun. (Whig).

[Mr. Baillie was proposed by A. Palmer, sen., and I. Elton; Mr. Protheroe by C. George and R. Ash. Mr. Hart Davis, who had issued an address seeking re-election, withdrew his candidature.]

1832, Sir Richard Rawlinson Vyvyan, Bart. (Tory), 3,697; James Evan Baillie (Whig), 3,159; Edward Protheroe, jun. (Reformer), 3,030; John Williams, K.C. (Reformer), 2,741.

[The Tories supported Mr. Baillie, whose views were less advanced than those of the other Reformers. Sir R. Vyvyan was proposed by Alderman Daniel and J. S. Harford; Mr. Baillie by R. Bright and A. Palmer; Mr. Protheroe by R. Ash and G. E. Sanders; Mr. Williams by T. Reynolds and J. Addington.]

1835, Philip John Miles (Conservative), 3,709; Sir Richard Rawlinson Vyvyan, Bart. (Conservative), 3,313; James Evan Baillie (Liberal), 2,518; the Right Hon. Sir John Cam Hobhouse, Bart. (Liberal), 1,308.

[Sir J. C. Hobhouse was brought forward unexpectedly on the day of nomination, being proposed by C. A. Elton and R. Ash, and an address was issued on his behalf signed by 57 leading Liberals. The Conservatives had not intended to oppose Mr. Baillie, and did not anticipate a contest, but after the nomination of Sir John Hobhouse they determined to attack the second seat, and just before the opening of the poll Mr. Miles was proposed by Alderman Fripp and W. E. Acraman. Sir R. Vyvyan had been proposed on the nomination day by Alderman Daniel and J. Cookson; Mr. Baillie by Robert Bright and Councillor M. H. Castle.]

1837, Philip William Skynner Miles (Conservative), 3,839; Francis Henry FitzHardinge Berkeley (Liberal), 3,212; William Fripp, J.P., Alderman (Conservative), 3,156.

[Mr. Miles was proposed by Councillor Daniel and J. S. Harford; Mr. Berkeley by Alderman Stock and Councillor Cunningham; Alderman Fripp by Councillor Cookson and I. Cooke.]

1841, Philip William Skynner Miles (Conservative), 4,193; Francis Henry FitzHardinge Berkeley (Liberal), 3,739; William Fripp, J.P., Alderman (Conservative), 3,684.

[Mr. Miles was proposed by Councillor Cookson and C. L. Walker; Mr. Berkeley by J. Cunningham and Councillor G. Thomas; Alderman Fripp by Councillors Habertfield and R. J. Poole King.]

1847, Francis Henry FitzHardinge Berkeley (Liberal), 4,381; Philip William Skynner Miles (Conservative), 2,595; William Fripp, J.P. (Conservative), 2,476; Apsley Pellatt (Radical), 171.

[The contest was a personal one between the friends of Messrs. Miles and Fripp, but the candidates also differed politically on the Corn Law question, Mr. Miles being a Protectionist, and Mr. Fripp an adherent of Sir Robert Peel's Free Trade policy. Mr. Pellatt was brought forward by the Anti-State-Church party, being proposed by J. Shoard and R. Norris. Mr. Miles was proposed by J. Cookson, J.P., and C. L. Walker, J.P.; Mr. Berkeley by Councillors G. E. Sanders and Visger; Mr. Fripp by Councillors Shaw and Phippen.]

1852, Francis Henry FitzHardinge Berkeley (Liberal), 4,681; William Henry Gore Langton, J.P., Mayor (Liberal), 4,531; Forster Alleyne McGeachy (Conservative), 3,632.

[Mr. Berkeley was proposed by Councillors Visger and T. R. Sanders; Mr. Langton by Councillors M. Castle and Coates; Mr. McGeachy by J. S. Harford and Alderman Vining.]

1857, Francis Henry Fitzhardinge Berkeley (Liberal); William Henry Gore Langton, J.P. (Liberal).

[Mr. Berkeley was proposed by Councillors Visger and Coates; Mr. Langton by Councillors Castle and H. O. Wills.]

1859, Francis Henry FitzHardinge Berkeley (Liberal), 4,432; William Henry Gore Langton, J.P. (Liberal), 4,285; Frederic William Slade, Q.C. (Conservative), 4,205.

[Mr. Berkeley was proposed by Councillors Visger and Coates; Mr. Langton by Councillor M. Castle and J. Cox; Mr. Slade by Councillors J. W. Miles and R. J. Poole King.]

1865, Francis Henry FitzHardinge Berkeley (Liberal), 5,296; Sir Samuel Morton Peto, Bart. (Liberal), 5,228; Thomas Francis Fremantle (Conservative), 4,269.

[Mr. Berkeley was proposed by Councillor M. Castle and H. O. Wills; Sir M. Peto by G. Thomas and Councillor F. Terrell; Mr. Fremantle by P. W. S. Miles and Councillor R. J. Poole King.]

[Sir Morton Peto retired by accepting the Stewardship of Northstead, in consequence of the bankruptcy of his firm, in April, 1868. New writ ordered April 22.]

1868, April 29, vice Peto, John William Miles, Councillor (Conservative), 5,173; Samuel Morley (Liberal), 4,977.

[Mr. Miles was proposed by Councillor R. J. Poole King and Alderman S. V. Hare; Mr. Morley by G. Thomas and M. Castle.]

[Mr. Miles was unseated June 25, 1868, and Mr. P. W. S. Miles issued an address offering himself as the Conservative candidate in place of his brother for the remainder of the Parliament, but no writ was issued for a fresh election. Parliament was dissolved in the November following.]

1868, Francis Henry FitzHardinge Berkeley (Liberal), 8,759; Samuel Morley (Liberal), 8,714; John William Miles (Conservative), 6,694.

[Mr. Berkeley was proposed by Councillors G. J. Thomas and E. S. Robinson; Mr. Morley by M. Castle and Councillor F. Terrell; Mr. Miles by Councillor R. J. Poole King and W. Kearsey.]

[Mr. Berkeley died March 10, 1870. New writ ordered March 12.]

1870 (March 28), vice Berkeley, Elisha Smith Robinson, J.P., Councillor (Liberal), 7,832; Sholto Vere Hare, J.P., Alderman (Conservative), 7,062.

[Two other Liberal candidates had offered themselves, Messrs. K. D. Hodgson, who was supported by the leaders of the Liberal organisation, and George Odger, representing the artisans. A test ballot was held on March 22, when the numbers were—Robinson, 4,502; Hodgson 2,861, Odger 1,335, whereupon the two last-named retired. Mr. Robinson was proposed at the nomination by Councillors F. Terrell and Wedmore; Alderman Hare by Councillor Ffooks and W. Kearsey. On June 9 Mr. Robinson was unseated by the Court of Common Pleas in consequence of bribery committed on his behalf in connection with the test ballot. Baron Bramwell, who originally tried the petition, found that bribery had been committed at the test ballot but not at the election, and referred the question as to the forfeiture of the seat thereby to the Court of Common Pleas for decision. A new writ was ordered June 18.]

1870 (June 25). vice Robinson, Kirkman Daniel Hodgson (Liberal), 7,816; Sholto Vere Hare, J.P., Alderman (Conservative), 7,258.

[Mr. Hodgson was proposed by Councillors C. J. Thomas and F. Terrell; and Alderman Hare by J. W. Miles and W. Kearsey. This was the last election at which there were public nominations.]

1820, Bright, 10 ; Davis, 2.

[Aldermen Ames and Page and 7 Councillors plumped for Bright ; Alderman Wilcox voted for Davis and Bright, and Councillor Barrow plumped for Davis. No member of the Corporation voted for Baillie. The majority of the Corporation abstained from voting including all the prominent Tory leaders, Aldermen Daniel, Haythorne, Brooke, and Sir R. Vaughan, and Councillors Bickley, James George, Hassell, and Gardiner. Mr. Hart Davis was not supported on this occasion by the Steadfast Society, which had hitherto nominated the Tory candidates, and had intended to bring out Mr. Philip John Miles as its candidate at this election.]

1830, Baillie, 16 ; Davis, 15.

[5 Aldermen (Daniel, G. Hillhouse, A. Hillhouse, Barrow, and Goldney) and 10 Councillors voted for Davis and Baillie ; Councillor Claxton plumped for Baillie. No member of the Corporation voted for Protheroe, and of the 10 Whigs who were the only representatives of that party Messrs. Claxton and Pinney alone recorded their votes.]

1832, Baillie, 21 ; Vyvyan, 20 ; Protheroe, 3 ; Williams, 1.

[20 voted for Baillie and Vyvyan ; 1 (Mr. Bengough) plumped for Baillie ; 2 (Messrs. Philip and George Protheroe) plumped for Protheroe ; and 1 (Mr. Lunell) voted for Protheroe and Williams.]

1835, Miles, 22 ; Vyvyan, 20 ; Baillie, 8 ; Hobhouse, 3.

[9 Aldermen and 10 Councillors voted for the two Conservatives ; Messrs. Lunell and Philip and George Protheroe for Baillie and Hobhouse ; Messrs. Pinney, C. George, and Claxton for Miles and Baillie ; Mr. Lean for Vyvyan and Baillie ; Mr. M. Hinton Castle plumped for Baillie.]

*1837, Fripp, 34 ; Miles, 30 ; Berkeley, 28.

*1841, Fripp, 47 ; Miles, 46 ; Berkeley, 13.

*1847, Miles, 28 ; Fripp, 21 ; Berkeley, 21.

*1852, McGeachy, 38 ; Berkeley, 23 ; Langton, 19.

[*Particulars as to the voting of the members of the Council at these elections have already been given, at pages 54 and 55, in the notes on the political composition of the Bristol Corporation. The numbers given for Miles and Fripp in 1841, for Berkeley in 1847, and for McGeachy in 1852, on these pages are not quite accurate, but are correctly recorded above. In 1841 the split votes for Miles and Fripp were 44 (not 43), Alderman Butcher, who is erroneously described as not voting, having been omitted. In 1847 there were 20 (not 21) plumpers for Miles and 15 plumpers for Berkeley : Mr. F. W. Green split for Miles and Berkeley, instead of plumping for the former, and Mr. George Thomas, who is stated on page 55 not to have voted, plumped for Berkeley. In 1852 Mr. McGeachy had 36 plumpers ; Alderman Lucas, who is stated at page 55 not to have voted, should be added.]

THE OLD CORPORATION OF BRISTOL FROM 1599 TO THE PASSING OF THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT OF 1835.

I was enabled, some years ago, by the kindness and with the active assistance of the Town Clerk, Mr. Travers Burges, and the City Treasurer, Mr. Tremayne Lane, to compile a practically complete record of the succession of Aldermen and Common Councillors of Bristol from the date of the earliest existing Minute Books (1599) to the Municipal Reform Act of 1835. I have frequently been urged to publish my collections, no such list having ever been printed, and I have, therefore, determined to include them in the present compilation.

ALDERMEN.

The number of Aldermen under the Charter of Henry VII. (December 17, 1499) was six, including the Recorder; this was increased to twelve by the Charter of Elizabeth (July 28, 1581). Three Aldermen (Thomas Chester, Thomas Kelke, and William Tucker) died in the same week in September, 1583. In 1591 nine of the twelve Aldermen were William Hopkins, Mayor; Thomas Hannam, Recorder; John Browne, Philip Langley, Thomas Aldworth, Thomas Colston, Richard Cole, William Hickes, and John Barnes.

The Minute Book under date January 13, 1598-9, gives the following list, from which time the succession is continuous. When the cause of a vacancy is not otherwise stated, it was created by the death of the Alderman whose place was filled:—

William Ellys, Mayor; George Snigge, Recorder; Thomas Aldworth, Richard Cole, William Hickes, Francis Knight, William Parfrey, William Yate, John Webbe, John Horte, John Hopkins, and William Vawer

[Mr. Ellys' place, according to seniority, was between Messrs. Webbe and Horte]

March, 1598-9—Ralph Hurte, vice Aldworth

October, 1599—Rice Jones, vice Cole

June, 1600—John Whitson, vice Horte

March, 1601-2—Christopher Kedgwin, vice Jones

Early in 1604—Thomas James, vice Yate

September 25, 1605—Lawrence Hyde, Recorder, vice Snigge

January 8, 1607-8—Richard Smyth, vice Parfrey

September, 1609—Matthew Haviland, vice Smyth

March 4, 1610-11—John Butcher, vice Ellys

January 8, 1613-4—Robert Aldworth, vice Webbe

August 10, 1615—John Eglesfield, vice Hurte

THE OLD CORPORATION OF BRISTOL.—Continued.

 [In December, 1645, in accordance with an Ordinance of the Parliament, dated October 28 of that year, the Royalist Aldermen (Hooke, Longe, Wallis, James, Creswicke, and Colston) were removed, and their successors, all of whom were, of course, Parliamentarians, were elected at the meeting of the Council on September 15, 1646.]
 September 15, 1646—Richard Vickris, Gabriel Sherman, Luke Hodges, Henry Gibbes, Joseph Jackson, and Hugh Browne
 March 9, 1647-8—William Cann, vice Tomlinson
 August 6, 1650—Miles Jackson, vice Gibbes, resigned
 November 11, 1651—Bulstrode Whitlocke, Recorder, vice Prideaux, resigned
 July 16, 1652—Henry Gibbes, vice Hodges, resigned
 September 30, 1654—George Hellier, vice Browne
 May 4, 1655—John Doddridge, Recorder, vice Whitlocke, resigned
 August 29, 1655—Walter Deyos, vice Aldworth
 [On February 18, 1655-6, Aldermen Knight, Lock, and Sherman resigned, nominally on the plea of age and infirmity, but really under compulsion, being suspected of favouring the Royalists, and, Alderman Hellier having died on April 21, the four vacancies were filled on September 5 following.]
 September 5, 1656—Richard Balman, Arthur Farmer, Walter Sandy and Edward Tyson
 June 8, 1658—George White, vice Cann

October 16, 1658—Robert Chaloner, vice Deyos

[Alderman Chaloner resigned nine days afterwards, October 25, on appointment to the Mastership of the Back Hall.]

December 31, 1658—Robert Yate, vice Chaloner

March 29, 1659—John Stephens, Recorder, vice Doddridge

June 19, 1660—By mandamus of this date it was ordered that John Lock and Gabriel Sherman be restored to their seats as Aldermen; the Council demurred at first, on the ground that they had voluntarily resigned; but on November 6, 1660, Lock resumed his place, and on August 23, 1661, Sherman and Alexander James, who had been removed in 1645, were also restored, bringing the total number of Aldermen to 15. Sherman does not appear in the list after October 31, 1661; James did not resume his seat; he was re-elected March 1, 1663-4, but not sworn, and was finally discharged September 12, 1665

September 27, 1661—Henry Creswicke, vice White, resigned

[On October 4, 1661, an order was made for displacing all those who had been "unduly brought in" during the Commonwealth period, and restoring the Aldermen and Councillors who had been removed. In accordance with this order, Aldermen Vickris and Gibbes, who had been elected in 1646 in place of the Royalist Aldermen then removed, and also Aldermen Tyson and Yate, ceased to attend the Council. The other Aldermen elected during the Commonwealth period, with the exception of Alderman Sherman, whose name disappears from the list after October 31, seems to have retained their seats. Alderman Farmer appears to have been removed under the provisions of the Corporation Act about December, 1662, having ceased to attend at the end of the preceding year.]

October, 1661—William Colston and Richard Gregson

April, 1662—John Knight

May 27, 1662—Sir Robert Atkyns, Recorder, vice Stephens, resigned

August 25, 1662—Nathaniel Cale, vice J. Jackson

December, 1662—Sir Humphrey Hooke, vice Farmer

July 25, 1663—Sir Robert Cann, Bart., vice Gonnings; John Pope, vice M. Jackson; John Lawford, vice Gregson

[Mr. Pope was removed September 29, 1663, for refusing to take the Mayoralty. His place was not filled, and the normal number of 12 Aldermen was resumed.]

August 24, 1664—John Willoughby, vice Colston; Edward Morgan, vice Hooke

[Aldermen Colston and Sir H. Hooke had resigned on June 7; Mr. Morgan declined to serve.]

September 16, 1664—Thomas Langton, vice Morgan

September 12, 1665—Edward Morgan, vice James, resigned

August 31, 1667—Thomas Stevens and John Hicokes, vice Lock and Balman

August 17, 1669—John Wright, vice Creswicke

September 5, 1672—Sir Robert Yeamans, Bart., John Knight, jun., and Richard Streamer, vice Sandy, Morgan, and Cale

September 2, 1673—Ralph Olliffe and William Crabb, vice Willoughby and Wright

[Mr. Olliffe died September 30, 1683, and his place was not filled up before the revocation of the Charter.]

August 2, 1675—Richard Crumpe, vice Langton

August 21, 1679—Sir John Lloyd, Tory, vice Stevens; Joseph Creswicke, Tory, vice Knight, jun.

October 11, 1680—Richard Hart, Tory, vice Streamer

March 8, 1680-1—Thomas Day, Whig, vice Lloyd, resigned

September 28, 1681—Thomas Earle, Tory, vice Day, unseated

December 19, 1682—Sir John Churchill, Tory, Recorder, vice Atkyns, resigned

August 22, 1683—Thomas Eston, Tory, vice Earle, unseated

In 1683, a writ of quo warranto having been issued against the Corporation, the Charter was surrendered on December 9 in that year, and on June 2, 1684, a new Charter was granted, the King nominating the whole of the Council. The surviving old Aldermen, all of whom were Tories, were re-appointed. The names were:—Sir John Churchill, Recorder; Sir Robert Cann, Bart., John Lawford, Sir Robert Yeamans, Bart., John Hickes, William Crabb, Sir Richard Crumpe, Joseph Creswicke, Sir Richard Hart, Thomas Eston, Sir William Clutterbuck, and William Hayman, the two last named taking the places vacant by the deaths of Sir J. Knight and R. Olliffe.

November, 1685—The Hon. Roger North, Recorder, Tory, vice Churchill

June 21, 1686—John Moore, vice Hart, removed

August 28, 1686—Abraham Saunders, vice Cann

March 23, 1686-7—William Swymmer, Whig, vice Yeamans; John Coombes, vice Moore, resigned

On January 13, 1687-8, Aldermen Hickes, Eston, Sir W. Clutterbuck, Saunders, Swymmer, and Coombes were removed on account of their opposition to the Declaration of Indulgence; their successors were nominated by the King on January 14, and admitted February 4.

February 4, 1687-8—Michael Pope, Whig, Walter Stephens, William Jackson, Whig, William Brown, Humphrey Corsley, Tory, and Thomas Scrope

April 11, 1688—Simon Hurle, vice Stephens, removed

September 15, 1688—Henry Gibbes, vice Hurle, removed

On October 17, 1688, the old Charter was restored, when six of the old Aldermen who survived resumed their offices, viz.:—

John Hickes, Tory; William Crabb, Tory; Sir Richard Crumpe, Tory; Joseph Creswicke, Tory; Sir Richard Hart, Tory; Thomas Eston, Tory

October 27, 1688—William Powlett, Recorder, Whig, vice North, resigned

August 5, 1689—Sir William Clutterbuck, Tory; Thomas Day, Whig

August 8, 1689—Alderman Eston's election in 1683 declared void, and Sir Thomas Earle restored to his seat with the presidency of 1681

On the same day the number of Aldermen was completed by the election of

William Jackson, Whig; Edward Feilding, Whig; William Donning, Whig

[October 21, 1690—Sir Thomas Earle was removed, but was restored by writ of the King's Bench February 27, 1690-1.]

February 23, 1690-1—Sir William Hayman, Tory, vice Feilding

July 12, 1692—William Swymmer, Whig, vice Donning

June 29, 1696—Richard Lane, Whig, vice Earle

February 3, 1699-1700—Robert Yate, Whig, vice Crumpe

Those marked (*) were Aldermen at the date of the passing of the Municipal Corporation Act, 1835. Alderman Barrow had resigned on October 25, 1834, and Alderman G. Hillhouse in May, 1835, and the vacancies thereby created were not filled up. The latter remained a member of the Common Council, but the former withdrew entirely from the Corporation. Messrs. Cruger, Baillic, and Fowler had retained their seats in the Common Council after resigning their Aldermancies, the two former till their deaths, and the last till the passing of the Act of 1835.

The ancient city was divided into eleven wards, viz., those of Trinity, St. Michael, Redcliff, St. Nicholas, St. James, St. Ewen, St. Stephen, Temple, St. Maryleport, and St. Thomas. To these, on the destruction of the Castle in the time of the Commonwealth, was added the Ward of Castle Precincts. Each of the twelve Aldermen was assigned to one of these wards, and on the occurrence of a vacancy each Alderman in turn, in order of seniority, had, in accordance with an order dated March 29, 1614, and confirmed August 23, 1636, the option of transferring himself to the ward then vacant. After the passing of the Municipal Corporation Act of 1835, the ancient wards were still retained for purposes of Poor-law administration, two guardians being chosen to represent each of them in the Incorporation of the Poor, at a ward mote presided over by the Alderman of the ward. Accordingly, on February 19, 1836, twelve of the sixteen Aldermen elected under the provisions of the new Act were assigned to the ancient wards, and similar nominations were made annually until 1894. This system was abolished by the Poor Law Amendment Act of 1894, and the ancient wards and their Aldermen then ceased to exist. The following is the succession of the Aldermen in their respective wards as far as can be ascertained from the Minute Books. There is preserved a list of the division of the wards amongst the Aldermen on March 6, 1620-1, and occasional notes of appointments to vacancies up to 1689, since which date the succession is practically complete:—

CASTLE PRECINCTS.

In the time of Charles II. the Mayor for the year, whether an Alderman or Common Councillor only, appears to have acted as the Alderman of this ward; in August, 1688, the Recorder (the Hon. Roger North); and in the reigns of William III. and Anne the Mayor again filled that post.

On November 9, 1736, the Recorder (Sir Michael Foster) was the Alderman; after him the succession was:—

COMMON COUNCIL.

The Common Council originally consisted under the Charter of Edward III. (October 30, 1372) of 42 members, viz., the Mayor, the Sheriff, and 40 of "the better and more honest men of the town," chosen by them.

The Charter of Henry VII. (December 17, 1499), which created six Aldermen, increased the Common Council to 43, consisting of the Mayor, two Aldermen selected by him, and 40 others chosen by them. Until 1684 an Alderman, and therefore the Recorder, was not necessarily a member of the Council, but as vacancies among the Aldermen, other than the Recorder, were almost invariably filled by existing members of the Council, it was so in effect. The Charters of 1684 and 1710 made it legally necessary to fill vacancies amongst the Aldermen (except in the case of the Recorder) from the Common Council.

During the seventeenth century the number of 43 was frequently exceeded, and, this being done without legal sanction, a writ of quo warranto was issued in the reign of Charles II., calling on the Mayor and Common Council to show by what authority they exercised their powers. The Council, by a formal deed dated November 9, 1683, surrendered their existing Charters, and on June 2, 1684, a new Charter was granted, incorporating the city (which had not hitherto been technically a Corporation), establishing a Council of 43, all named in the first instance by the King, who reserved power to remove any of them, or of their successors, at his discretion. On October 17, 1688, the old Charters, the surrender of which had not been duly recorded and enrolled, were restored by Royal proclamation, and the Charter of 1684 was annulled. Queen Anne granted a further Charter, dated July 24, 1710, which declared the City of Bristol to be incorporate, and explicitly renounced the right of removing any of the members of the Corporation, or of its officers.

On January 13, 1598-9, the date of the earliest extant minutes, the Corporation consisted of the following 43 members, viz. :—

1682-3, March 12. vice Atkins — Sir John Churchill, Recorder, re-appointed June, 1684

The number of Councillors was now 52, which by the deaths of Alderman Olliffe, Alderman Sir J. Knight, Messrs. Webb and Colston was reduced to 48 by the end of January, 1683-4. Mean-time, in consequence of the issue of the writ of quo warranto, the Charters had been surrendered on November 9, 1683. The instrument of surrender was signed by the Mayor (Sir W. Clutterbuck), the Recorder (Sir J. Churchill), Sir J. Knight, Sir R. Cann, Sir R. Crumpe, Alderman Eston, and the Town Clerk (John Romsey).

[NOTE.—The John Knights of this period are somewhat confusing, and the identification and discrimination of the various persons of the same name holding official positions in connection with Bristol, has been a problem which has exercised, not always with success, the ingenuity of a good many inquirers. The most accurate account of them that has appeared in print is, I think, that contained in volume 3 of Nicholls and Taylor's Bristol Past and Present, which I am now able to render more complete. Mr. Tremayne Lane has very kindly given me tracings of the signatures of the John Knights who were members of the Common Council, as they appear in the records at the Council House, and Mr. G. H. Pope has very carefully examined for me the memoranda concerning them in the books of the Merchant Venturers, and has ascertained a fact which had hitherto escaped the notice of himself, as well as of all previous writers, including the author of the article on the Knights in the Dictionary of National Biography, viz., the relationship between Alderman John Knight the younger, and the second Sir John Knight. The following may, I think, be relied upon as a complete and accurate identification of the various John Knights who were conspicuous in our local annals.

1. John Knight "the elder"—afterwards Sir John Knight—son of Alderman George Knight, was a wholesale grocer in Temple parish. He was elected a Common Councillor in 1650 and 1654, but not sworn till 1660, in which year he was elected Sheriff, but succeeded in getting excused from serving on account of his Parliamentary duties. He was an Alderman from 1662 till his death in 1683, and Mayor in 1663-4, was knighted in 1563, and served as M.P. for Bristol in the four Parliaments from 1660 to 1680. He was also Master of the Merchant Venturers in 1663, but never Warden.
2. John Knight "the younger"—so called to distinguish him from No. 1, until the latter's knighthood, when he dropped that affix. He was elected a Common Councillor in 1653 and 1661, but not sworn till 1664, and was an Alderman from 1672 till his death, in 1679. He was Sheriff 1664-5, and Mayor 1670-71, but was never knighted, and did not serve in Parliament. He was Master of the Merchant Venturers 1666-67, having been three times Warden, 1654-55, 1655-56, 1661-62. He was a sugar refiner, and belonged to St. Michael's parish.
3. John Knight "of the Hill"—afterwards Sir John Knight. He was a son of No. 2, and was elected a Common Councillor in 1674 and 1679, retired in 1685, returned to the Council in 1688, and finally withdrew in 1702, dying in

1718. He was Sheriff 1681-82, and Mayor 1691-92, and M.P. in the two Parliaments from 1689 to 1695, and was knighted during his Shrievalty in 1682. He was Warden of the Merchant Venturers 1681-82, but never Master.

Besides these members of the Corporation there was also

4. John Knight, "the younger," son of Sir John Knight (No. 1), was never in the Council, but was Warden of the Merchant Venturers 1671-2, and died May 29, 1684, a few months after his father. My previous identification (on page 124) of the Warden for 1671-2 with No. 2, was incorrect, having been made before Mr. Pope's examination of the minutes and signatures at Merchant's Hall.

It will be seen that of the four, Nos. 1, 2, and 3 were members of the Corporation, and served the office of Mayor; Nos. 1 and 2 were Aldermen; Nos. 1 and 3 were knighted, and also served as members of Parliament for the city. All were members of the Society of Merchant Venturers; No. 2 was both Master and Warden; No. 1 was Master, but not Warden; and Nos. 3 and 4 were Wardens, but not Masters.]

 1834, September 6, vice E. Brice—†William Killigrew Wait (Tory), sworn September 13, 1834
 1834, September 6, vice Stanton—Richard Hunt (Tory), sworn September 15, 1835

[Messrs. Ricketts and Hunt were not sworn until after the passing of the Municipal Corporations Act (which did not come into operation until January, 1836), and only attended one meeting of the Council. The vacancies caused by the resignation of Alderman Barrow and the death of Mr. Baillie were not filled up. Aldermen Daniel, Fripp, A. Hillhouse, George, Goldney, Savage, and Roeh, and Councillors Pinney, Walker, Riddle, Lunell, Lean, Castle, C. George, Watson, Maze, and Ricketts obtained seats in the Reformed Corporation, as also did Messrs. Stock, Winwood, Hall, sen., Ash, and Nash, who had previously refused to serve.]

[It will be noticed that throughout the 18th century the Whig party predominated in, and at times almost monopolised, the Common Council. In the earlier part of George III.'s reign almost the only representatives of the Tories were Messrs. Hotchkin, Miles, Mugleworth, Baker, Miller, Brickdale, Daubeney, and Lippincott, the last three of whom became members for the city. The political complexion of the Corporation was completely transformed during the quarter of a century preceding the Municipal Reform Act, mainly through the influence of Alderman Daniel. The common notion that the old Corporation was a permanently Tory institution, and that the Tories were esponsible for the abuses which that body was credited by the Reforming party with perpetuating, is altogether a popular delusion. The supremacy of the Tories in the Bristol Corporation before the Reform Act lasted for barely 25 years out of the 150 which followed the Revolution and the restoration of the old Charter; during the rest of that period it was mainly a Whig preserve. In the agitation against the town dues in the years 1823-1828, the leaders were Tories—Henry Bush and John Mathew Gutch, editor of Felix Farley's Journal, who wrote the letters signed "Cosmos," which served as a sort of text-book for the Anti-Corporation party.]

The succession of "Fathers of the Corporation" was for the most part, but not invariably, coincident with that of senior Alderman. It runs as follows:—

- January, 1598-9—Alderman Thomas Aldworth
 February, 1598-9—Alderman Cole
 July, 1599—Alderman Hickes
 July, 1618—Alderman Vawer
 January, 1619-20—Alderman Whitson
 February, 1628-9—Alderman Robert Aldworth

THE OLD CORPORATION OF BRISTOL.—Continued.

November, 1634—Alderman Kitchen
 July, 1640—Alderman Gunninge (I.)
 May, 1645—Alderman Hooke
 December, 1645—Alderman Tomlinson
 January, 1647-8—Alderman George Knight
 February, 1655-6—Alderman Gunninge (II.)
 November, 1662—Alderman Miles Jackson
 February, 1662-3—Alderman Ballman
 June, 1667—Alderman Sandy
 June, 1672—Alderman Wright
 September, 1672—Alderman Lawford and Councillor Griffith (these entered the Council the same day; Mr. Griffith was removed in June, 1684)
 July, 1688—Alderman Crabb
 October, 1702—Alderman Creswicke
 February, 1707-8—Alderman William Swymmer
 December, 1714—Alderman Yate
 October, 1737—Councillor Gravett, till 1738; Alderman Sir Abraham Elton, Bart.; Alderman Becher, till June, 1742. [These had all entered the Corporation on the same day, Sir A. Elton being the last survivor.]
 October, 1742—Councillor Samuel Stokes
 January, 1745-6—Alderman Donning
 March, 1745-6—Alderman Joseph Jefferis
 October, 1752—Alderman Rich
 February, 1755—Alderman Jacob Elton
 June, 1765—Alderman Nathaniel Day
 August, 1765—Alderman John Foy
 January, 1771—Alderman Weekes
 February, 1772—Alderman Morgan Smith
 August, 1781—Alderman Muggleworth
 July, 1782—Alderman Durbin, sen.
 February, 1792—Alderman Thomas Harris
 January, 1797—Alderman Deane
 January, 1798—Alderman Sir John Durbin
 January, 1814—Councillor Cruger
 April, 1827—Alderman Noble
 January, 1828—Councillor William Weare

If no account be taken of the frequent removals and restorations from the Civil War to the Revolution of 1688, the succession from 1662 to 1700 would run thus :—

November, 1662—Alderman Lock
 October, 1666—Alderman Ballman
 June, 1667—Alderman Sandy
 June, 1672—Alderman Wright
 September, 1672—Alderman Lawford and Councillor Griffith till June, 1684
 July, 1688—Alderman Crabb
 October, 1688—Councillor Griffith again
 December, 1689—Alderman Hickes
 March, 1699-1700—Alderman Crabb again

Those marked * served the offices of Mayor and Sheriff.

Those marked † held the office of Sheriff, but not the Mayoralty.

Those in italics were members of the Council at the passing of the Municipal Act, 1835.

MAYORS AND SHERIFFS, 1598-1835.

The day of election was September 15, that of entering into office September 29. In the following list the year is that of election. THE OLD CORPORATION OF BRISTOL.--Continued.

1834. Charles Payne: James Norroway Franklyn and William Killigrew Wait

[Under the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act of 1835 the Mayor and Sheriffs continued in office until December 31 in that year.]

Of the Mayors in the foregoing list J. Haythorne served the office three times, and F. Knight, J. Whitson, H. Hooke, J. Gunninge (II.), Sir R. Cann, R. Olliffe, Sir T. Day, R. Lane, Sir A. Elton (I), Sir J. Durbin, J. Harvey, D. Evans, J. H. Wilcox, Sir W. J. Struth, and J. Savage served twice. Messrs W. Fripp and J. George also served a second year each after the passing of the Act of 1835.

Of the Sheriffs there was no case of the office being twice filled by the same person until Mr. John Foy's election in 1744, he having already served in the year 1732-3. Afterwards it became a not unusual practice. Those besides Mr. Foy who were elected to the Shrievalty more than once were B. Bickley, who served four years, E. Brice (I.), J. Harford, and P. George, who served each three times, and B. Weekes, H. Dampier, G. Baily, J. Noble (I.), J. Berrow, J. Daltera, I. Baugh, A. Pope, Sir J. Durbin, J. Noble (II.), J. Hill, J. Harris, J. Morgan, S. Span, R. Williams, R. Castle, J. F. Edgar, Sir H. Protheroe, J. Haythorne, E. Brice (II.), G. Hilhouse, A. Hilhouse, J. George, N. Roch, J. Gardiner, G. Goldney, J. Savage, C. L. Walker and J. N. Franklyn, who each held the office a second year. P. Maze, jun., who was Sheriff 1833-4, again served the office under the reformed Corporation.

9 Mayors died in office during this period (J. Horte, J. Barker, R. Olliffe, J. Day, H. Watts, R. Bayly, M. Miller, R. Castle, and H. Bright); also 4 Sheriffs (W. Pitt, jun., E. Peters, J. Aldworth, and J. Dwyer).

11 Mayors (Sir T. Langton, Sir J. Lloyd, Sir R. Hart, Sir T. Earle, Sir W. Clutterbuck, Sir W. Hayman, Sir T. Day, Sir J. Hawkins, Sir W. Lewis, Sir J. Durbin, and Sir W. J. Struth) and 5 Sheriffs (Sir J. Knight, II., Sir W. Merricke, Sir W. Daines, Sir S. Nash, and Sir H. Protheroe) were knighted whilst holding their respective offices. Three Baronets held the Mayoralty (Sir R. Cann, Sir R. Yeamans, and Sir A. Elton). The second Sir A. Elton succeeded to that dignity after filling the Mayoralty, and two ex-Sheriffs (J. Laroche, jun., and H. Lippincott) were created Baronets. The following Mayors also received knighthood, but not during their terms of office as Mayor or Sheriff: Sir H. Creswicke, Sir J. Knight (I.), Sir R. Crumpe and Sir R. Vaughan.

It is a fact worthy of notice that during the 90 years 1715-1804, only eleven Tories were elected to the Mayoralty; from 1715 to 1767 inclusive, a period of 52 years, the Whigs monopolised the chair. (Messrs. Mugleworth and I. Elton, who subsequently voted for Tory candidates at the Parliamentary elections, were Whigs at the time they filled the office of Chief Magistrate.) On the other hand Messrs. Fripp and Pinney (both of whom afterwards became Conservatives), were the only Whig Mayors from 1816 to 1835.

THE OLD CORPORATION OF BRISTOL.—*Continued.LORD HIGH STEWARDS, 1541-1835.

- 1541, Edward, Earl of Hertford, K.G. (created Duke of Somerset February, 1546-7)

 1786, November 29, William Henry, Duke of Portland (K.G. July, 1794); died October 30, 1809
 1810, March 14, William Wyndham, Lord Grenville; died January 12, 1834
 1834, February 8, Henry Charles, Duke of Beaufort, K.G.; died November 28, 1835

Of the above the Duke of Somerset was Protector of the kingdom at the beginning of Edward VI.'s reign. The Earls of Leicester and Essex were the well-known favourites of Queen Elizabeth. Lord Burghley, the Earl of Dorset, and the Earl of Salisbury were successively Lords High Treasurer in the reigns of Elizabeth and James I., and the Earl of Portland held the same office under Charles I. The Earl of Hardwicke, the Duke of Portland, and Lord Grenville were the leaders of the Whig party in the House of Lords at the dates of their respective appointments, the first-named holding the office of Lord Chancellor, and the two latter having each been the nominal head of a Ministry (the Coalition and "All the Talents") of which Charles James Fox was the chief member.

He resigned the Recordership in June, 1827, soon after his elevation to the Lord Chancellorship.)
- 1827, July. 28.—Sir Charles Wetherell, K.C. (Solicitor-General January, 1824—September 1826; Attorney-General September, 1826—April, 1827, and February, 1828—June, 1829.)

The list of Recorders of Bristol contains the names of a remarkable number of persons of distinction; indeed, very few have not attained to high judicial or political office. The roll includes a Lord Chancellor (Lord Lyndhurst) and three Commissioners of the Great Seal (Messrs. Prideaux, Whitelocke, and Scrope); eight were Chief Justices of one or other of the English Courts of Law (Sir D. Broke, Sir J. Popham, Sir N. Hyde, Sir R. Atkyns, Sir R. Eyre, Sir V. Gibbs, Lord Gifford, and Lord Lyndhurst); three were Masters of the Rolls (Sir J. Churchill, Lord Gifford, and Lord Lyndhurst); 3 held puisne judgeships in England (Justice Walsh, Sir G. Snigge, and Sir M. Foster), four (Sir G. Snigge, Serjeant Powlett, the Hon. D. Barrington, and Sir V. Gibbs) were judges in Wales, and one (Baron Scrope) in Scotland. Of those who did not ultimately become judges two held the Attorney-Generalship (E. Prideaux and Sir C. Wetherell), one (J. Dunning, afterwards Lord Ashburton) the Solicitor-Generalship, and one (Serjeant

Kelway) was a Master in Chancery. In addition to offices involving judicial or legal functions, two (Sir J. Popham and Sir J. Glanville) were Speakers of the House of Commons, one (Sir R. Atkyns) Speaker of the House of Lords, one (Baron Scrope) Secretary to the Treasury, and one (Lord Ashburton) Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. It may be noted that of the Recorders since the Municipal Act of 1835 Mr. Crowder became a judge of the Common Pleas, and Sir A. Cockburn, who was Attorney-General when appointed, was successively Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas and of the Queen's Bench. Sir Robert Collier, also was Attorney-General, and afterwards a judge of the Privy Council. All the Recorders marked * represented the city of Bristol in Parliament, and Sir R. Atkyns and Serjeant Powlett were unsuccessful candidates. Besides these, the following sat for other constituencies:—

- Sir Lawrence Hyde.—Heytesbury, 1584—1585 and 1597—1598; Chippenham, 1586—1587; Marlborough, 1601 and 1604—1611.

 1764, April 11—Charles Lee. Died October 6, 1811
 1812, March 11—John Joseph Goodenough.

The appointment to the Head-Mastership passed from the gift of the Corporation to that of the Charity Trustees in 1836. The school had been closed since 1828, but Dr. Goodenough retained possession of the school house until September, 1844, and did not finally abandon his claim to the office until July, 1845. In that year he was presented to the rectory of Broughton Pogis, Oxfordshire, which he retained till his death, April 2^d, 1855. He had held successively, in conjunction with the Head-Mastership, the rectories of Bow, Brickhill, Bucks., 1820-40, and Sperrall, Warwickshire, 1840-43. The subsequent holders of the office have been—

 1737, June 3, vice Middleton—Etwall. Resigned 1743

[The vacancy caused by Dr. Etwall's resignation was not filled till 1747.]

1747., December 15, vice Hardwicke and Etwall—Archibald Drummond; resigned October, 1771. William Cadogan; resigned March, 1752

[Dr. Francis Randolph was a candidate. At the first division the numbers were: Drummond, 98; Randolph, 78; Cadogan, 7. At the second division Dr. Cadogan was elected by 87 votes against 84 for Randolph. On Dr. Cadogan's resignation the vacancy remained unfilled for more than five years.]

1757, December 23, vice Logan and Cadogan—Francis Woodward; resigned December, 1769. Edward Lyne; resigned October, 1763

[The vacancy caused by Dr. Lyne's resignation remained unfilled for more than three years.]

1761, December 8, vice Bonython—James Plomer. Resigned April, 1798.

[Dr. Plomer defeated Dr. Gordon by 19 votes.]

1767, January 13, vice Lyne—Samuel Farr; resigned April, 1780.

[Dr. Corryn was an unsuccessful candidate.] (Additional) John England; resigned March, 1767

[The number of physicians was thus temporarily increased to five; but at the resignation of Dr. Woodward, in 1769, the vacancy was not filled, and the original number was restored.]

1767, March 3, vice England—Thomas Rigge. Resigned Feb., 1778

[Dr. Rigge, in later life, abandoned the medical profession, and was called to the Bar.]

1771, November 4, vice Drummond—John Wright. Died December 23, 1794

1772, September 5 (additional)—John Paul

[Dr. Robert Robertson was an unsuccessful candidate. The number of physicians was again raised to five; but was finally reduced to four on the resignation of Dr. Collyns in 1779.]

1775, July 18, vice Paul—William Monerieffe. Died Feb. 13, 1816

1778, March 17, vice Rigge—Benjamin Collyns. Resigned 1779

[Dr. Collyns left England about four months after his election and died a few years later in Barbados.]

1780, May 14, vice Farr—Arthur Broughton. Resigned 1786

[Dr. Broughton went to Jamaica, with leave of absence, in December, 1783, and his place was not filled till 1786.]

1786, April 3, vice Broughton—Edward Long Fox. Resigned October, 1816

[Dr. Fox, who was originally elected for a year only, in view of the possible return of Dr. Broughton, defeated Dr. Samuel Cave by 157 to 137.]

1795, January 7, vice Wright—Robert Lovell. Resigned 1810

[The votes were : Lovell, 292 ; Dr. Andrew Carrick, 107.]

1798, April 18, vice Plomer—John New. Resigned October, 1802

[The votes were : New, 377 ; Dr. John Heathfield Hickes, 216.]

1802, November 18, vice New—Walter Kennedy Craufuird. Resigned March, 1811

1810, September 20, vice Lovell—Andrew Carrick. Resigned 1834

[This election was vigorously contested, an element of political feeling being imported into it. Dr. Carrick, who was a Tory, was proposed by the Tory leader, Alderman Daniel, and seconded by a prominent member of the party, Councillor James Fowler. Dr. J. E. Stock, a leading Unitarian and Whig, was proposed and seconded by Sir Abraham Elton and Mr. Sheriff Castle, who were amongst the foremost of local Whig politicians. There was a third candidate, Dr. J. C. Prichard, who was proposed by Alderman Wait. The poll stood : Carrick, 448 ; Stock, 216 ; Prichard, 81.]

1811, March 28, vice Craufuird—John Edmonds Stock. Resigned 1828

[Dr. Stock had, in his student days, been a very vehement Reformer and an associate of the Edinburgh Republicans, Watt and Downie. He was indicted with them for high treason in 1798. He made his escape to America ; on his return to England afterwards the prosecution was abandoned in consideration of his youth. At this election there was again a keen contest, Dr. Thomas Webb Dyer, a Tory and subsequent President of the Dolphin, receiving a good deal of political support. The numbers were : Stock, 384 ; Dyer, 356.]

1816, February 29, vice Fox and Moncrieffe—Henry Hawes Fox ; resigned 1829. James Cowles Prichard ; resigned June, 1843

[Dr. Dyer was again a candidate. The votes were : Fox, 968 ; Prichard, 670 ; Dyer, 515. Dr. Fox was a son of his predecessor.]

1828, February 21, vice Stock—George Wallis. Resigned January 1855

[This election was contested with great vigour, Dr. Wallis defeating his opponent, Dr. John Howell, by five votes only—361 to 356. Dr. Wallis was proposed and seconded by Councillor Hassell and Mr. Joseph Mefford, formerly one of the surgeons to the Infirmary ; Dr. Howell by Alderman Fripp, jun., and Mr. A. G. Harford Battersby. The contest was purely personal, there being no political undercurrent, as in the elections of 1810 and 1811.]

1829, June 4, vice Fox—John Howell. Resigned June, 1843

1834, August 28, vice Carrick—Henry Riley. Resigned October, 1847

1843, June 29., vice Prichard and Howell—James Fogo Bernard ; resigned May, 1856. Gilbert Lyon ; resigned August, 1857

1847, October 28, vice Riley—William Budd. Resigned February, 1862
 1855, February 15, vice Wallis—Frederick Brittan. Resigned
 October, 1873

[Dr. Fairbrother was a candidate, and there was a vigorous canvass until a few days before the election, when on a comparison of promises showing an assured majority for Dr. Brittan, his opponent withdrew.]

1856, June 5, vice Bernard—Alexander Fairbrother. Retired after 20 years' service, June, 1876

1857, September 3, vice Lyon—Edward Long Fox. Retired after 20 years' service, August, 1877

[Dr. Long Fox represents the third generation of his family on the Infirmary medical staff, being a grandson of Dr. E. L. Fox (Physician 1796-1816) and nephew of Dr. H. H. Fox (Physician 1816-1829).]

1862, March 20, vice Budd—John Beddoe. Resigned October, 1873

1873, November 20, vice Brittan and Beddoe—*William Henry Spencer, resigned March, 1888; Robert Shingleton Smith

1891, December 8—Walter Swayne

SURGEONS.

1737, May 20—William Thornhill; resigned December, 1754.
 Thomas Page; died May 5, 1741

[There were three other candidates—John Deverell, Abraham
 Ludlow, and James Ford.]

1741, June 5, vice Page—John Page. Resigned 1777

[Mr. Page, who was a son of his predecessor, defeated Mr. Ludlow.]

1743, June 13 (additional)—James Ford; resigned 1759

1754, December 20 (election of three Surgeons)—John Castelman; resigned July, 1779. John Norman; died April 29, 1763. John Townsend; resigned November, 1781

[There was one vacancy, owing to the resignation of Mr. Thornhill; but it was decided to elect three new surgeons, thus increasing the staff to five. 139 subscribers voted for electing 3, 60 for 2, 12 for 1, 2 for 4, and 1 for none. There were three unsuccessful candidates, the numbers being: Castelman, 157; Norman, 145; Townsend, 145; Thomas Hellier, 62; William Barrett, 59; James Grace, 28.]

1759, June 12, vice Ford—John Ford. Resigned August, 1775

[Mr. Ford, who was the brother of his predecessor, defeated Messrs. Abraham Ludlow (son of the candidate in 1737 and 1741) and William Barrett, the historian of Bristol.]

1767, January 20, vice Norman—Abraham Ludlow; resigned
December, 1774; Thomas Skone; resigned June, 1770

[The vacancy caused by Mr. Norman's death in 1763 had remained unfilled for nearly four years. The elect on now resulted in a tie, each candidate polling 147 votes, and it was then decided to increase the staff to six, and retain the services of both gentlemen. Mr. Skone subsequently emigrated to Tobago, and was killed by a fall from his horse about the year 1779. The vacancy caused by his resignation in 1773 was not filled, and the number of surgeons remained from this date fixed at five until 1892.]

1774, December 15, vice Linden—Richard Smith; died June 21, 1791

[The votes were: Smith, 211; Thomas Davies, 81; J. Rawlins, 47]

1771, May 6, vice Page—John Padmore Noble. Died June 22, 1812

[Mr. Noble obtained 211 votes against 148 for James Norman.]

1779, August 9, vice Castelman—James Norman. Resigned 1783

[Mr. Norman defeated Joseph Metford by a majority of three.]

1781, November 27, vice Townsend—Morgan Yeatman. Resigned 1807

[The votes were: Yeatman, 211; Metford, 150]

1783, April 2, vice Norman—Joseph Metford. Resigned June, 1793

1791, July 7, vice Smith—Robert Jones Allard. Resigned July, 1810

[Mr. Allard, who defeated Danvers Ward by 230 votes to 96, took the additional name of Kemys on inheriting the estate of Ynisarwed, in Glamorganshire, July 28, 1810, when he retired from practice. He was knighted (when serving the office of High Sheriff of that county) March 6, 1817, and died January 10, 1832.]

1796, June 23, vice Metford—Richard Smith. Died January 24, 1843

1806, April 24, vice Lowe—Francis Cheyne Bowles. Died May 18, 1807

[The votes were: Bowles, 237; William Hetling, 235; Richard Lowe, 166. Mr. Bowles won his election by the votes of the lady subscribers, who for the first time took part in a contest. Ten of these voted, of whom eight were for Mr. Bowles and two for Mr. Hetling.]

1807, June 2, vice Bowles—William Hetling. Died November 11, 1837

[The votes were: Hetling, 395; Richard Lowe, 167; Nathaniel Smith, 74.]

1807, July 9, vice Yeatman—Richard Lowe. Died February 9, 1850

[Mr. Lowe, who was a son of Mr. Godfrey Lowe, a member of the surgical staff from 1775 till his death in 1806, himself retained his post to the end of his life—a period of nearly 43 years. There were five candidates at the election, the votes polled being: Lowe, 346; Henry Daniel, 121; Nathaniel Smith, 88; Richard Edgell, 66; John King, 36.]

1810, September 27, vice Allard—Henry Daniel; resigned 1836

[The votes were: Daniel, 383; Thomas Shute, jun., 224; Nathaniel Smith, 100.]

1812, July 9, vice Noble—Thomas Shute jun. Died September 2, 1816

PHYSICIANS.

- 1831, December 16—John Addington Symonds. 319; re-elected November 28, 1842, resigned 1844. James Fripp. 306; resigned
 1838. Adam Chadwick. 217; refused to accept the office

[The number of physicians was originally fixed at three, and there were only three candidates, but a poll was taken to determine the order of seniority and retirement. The ordinary period of service was to be ten years, but of those chosen at the first election the highest on the poll was to serve eleven, the next ten, and the third nine years. Dr. Chadwick, who was senior in professional standing to his competitors, was so annoyed at being placed third on the list, especially below Dr. Symonds, whom he described as a "comparative stranger," that he issued an address declining to accept the office. His place was not filled, and there were only two physicians until 1856, when the original number of three was restored. Viewed in the light of Dr. Symonds' subsequent professional eminence, Dr. Chadwick's petulant address is a curiosity.]

ANTIENT SOCIETY OF ST. STEPHEN'S RINGERS.

MASTERS, 1681-1708.

Since the list of Masters and Wardens of this Antient Society, which I have given on pages 153-160, was printed, I have discovered, among the manuscripts of the late Richard Smith, at the Infirmary, a paper containing the names of the Masters from 1681 to 1708, which I at once communicated to Mr. Fuller Eberle, the Treasurer of the Society, and which in consequence appeared for the first time in print on the toast-card at the dinner of 1898. This list I now subjoin.

1681-1682, Thomas Atkins	1688-1689, David Potter
1682-1683, John Neads	1689-1690, William Pugsley
1683-1684, John Blanch	1690-1691, John Thompson
1684-1685, Francis Price	1691-1692, Joseph Baugh
1685-1686, James Hulbert	1692-1693, Charles Ansford
1686-1687, Robert Bound	1693-1694, William Nichols
1687-1688, Richard Adams	1694-1695, Robert Sergeant

(Mr. Sergeant died during his year of office, as did also his successor, Hugh Williams.)

Continued.

1695-1696, George Novis	1702-1703, Charles Nicholls
1696-1697, John Hobbs	1703-1704, Francis Cadogan
1697-1698, Thomas Martin	1704-1705, Henry Seaborne
1698-1699, William Turton	1705-1706, Robert Dunning
1699-1700, John Ivey	1706-1707, James Hollidge
1700-1701, James Joeham	1707-1708, Robert Tunbridge
1701-1702, John Day

There is no record from 1708 to 1731, when Thomas Horwood was elected. In Mr. Smith's time the names for those years had evidently been lost, as he appends to his list the words, "hiatus valde deflendus!" John Hobbs (Master 1696-1697) was the "Father" of the Society at the date of the earliest minute book now known to exist, which begins with the year 1732.

1899, May 9—William Wilkinson Squire

The following alterations in and additions to the figures given in the Statistical Notes are consequent on changes which have occurred since they were printed up to the present date (July, 1899):—

BRISTOL WARD (pp. 5-6)—The number of J.P.'s is increased to 22 by the addition of Mr. Dix, and that of High Sheriffs to 6 by the election of Mr. C. Wills.

CLIFTON WARD (p. 11)—The number of individual representatives is increased to 77, and of Conservatives to 63, by the election of Mr. Tucker, who was returned as an Independent, displacing Commander Cawley, one of the official Conservative candidates, who had himself originally stood as an Independent in 1895.

REDCLIFF WARD (p. 16)—The number of J.P.'s has been increased by the addition of Mr. Mervyn King, but is 13 as stated in the text, where Mr. Tothill's name has been wrongly included.

ST. PHILIP'S WARD, SOUTH (p. 22)—The number of J.P.'s is increased to 4 by the addition of Messrs. Elkins and Swaish.

BEDMINSTER WARD, WEST (p. 26)—The number of J.P.'s is increased to 7 by the addition of Messrs. Parsons and Latham.

STATISTICAL NOTES—Continued.

- ST. MICHAEL'S WARD (p. 30)—The number of J.P.'s is increased to 8 by the addition of Mr. Richards.
- ST. PAUL'S WARD (p. 36)—The number of J.P.'s is increased to 7 and of Mayors to 2 by the addition of Mr. Ashman.
- DISTRICT WARD (p. 38)—The number of individual representatives is increased to 19, and of Liberals to 17, by the election of Mr. Holman; that of J.P.'s to 10, and of Aldermen to 5, by the addition of Mr. Gardner.
- EASTON WARD (p. 40)—Mr. Verrier has been appointed a Justice of the Peace.
- ALDERMEN (pp. 47-48)—The composition of the aldermanic bench since November, 1897, has been 15 Conservatives, 3 Liberals, and 5 Liberal Unionists. The number of individuals chosen to be Aldermen is increased to 95, and that of Liberals to 11, by the addition of Mr. Gardner. The number of vacancies since 1886 is increased to 19, of which 10 have been filled by representatives of the Wards, the total number of Councillors and ex-Councillors elected since 1835 having been raised to 34. The addition of Messrs. Dix and Gardner to the bench of magistrates increases the number of Aldermen who have been J.P.'s to 43.
- MAYORS (p. 52)—The election of Mr. Ashman increases the number of individuals who have been elected to the Mayoralty since the Act of 1835 to 43, of Liberals to 9, and of years in which the chief magistracy has been held by a Liberal to 17.
- THE WHOLE COUNCIL (p. 59)—The total number of individuals elected to the Council is 407, the number that have died in office remains 74, as stated in the text; 191 have died after retirement, leaving 142 survivors, including the 84 existing members. The number of Conservatives is increased to 235 by the addition of Messrs. Tucker and Mellroy, and of Liberals to 162 by that of Mr. Holman. The number of members whose connection with the Council was not terminated by death is 249, of whom 208 withdrew at the close and 15 in the course of a term of office; 24 failed to obtain re-election. The name of Commander Cawley should be added to those enumerated in the text under the last head. Forty-two have served the office of Mayor, 26 that of High Sheriff since 1835; 44 have been Masters of the Society of Merchant Venturers; 38 have been Presidents of the Anchor (including the President-Elect for 1899, and 33 of the Colston (or Parent) Society. The number of those that have been Presidents of the Chamber of Commerce since 1853 is 13, and of the earlier Chamber 7.

SHERIFFS (p. 94)—The number of individuals elected to the Shrievalty is increased to 61, of those still living to 28, and of those chosen after retiring from the Council to 4, by the addition of Mr. C. Wills.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE (p. 103)—The number of existing Justices is reduced to 78 (of whom two have not qualified) by the death of the Duke of Beaufort. The addition of Major Rumsey fills the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Lane. The present magistrates consist of thirty-six Conservatives, thirty-two Liberals, nine Liberal Unionists, and His Honour Judge Austin. (Mr. Alfred Robinson, who is a Liberal Unionist, was wrongly described as a Liberal on page 102, and Mr. H. O. Wills, who was formerly a Liberal, is now a Conservative. Of the 178 appointments, 85 were of Liberals, and 8 of Liberal Unionists, Messrs. W. M. Baker and A. Robinson having been erroneously reckoned with the former in the numbers given on page 103. For the same reason the number appointed by Conservative Governments should be read as: 32 Liberals and 7 Liberal Unionists.) There are at present 16 Allermen and 13 Councillors on the city bench.

SOCIETY OF MERCHANT VENTURERS (p. 133)—The number of Masters elected since 1605 is increased to 355 by the addition of Mr. Edwards.

THE COLSTON SOCIETIES (pp. 147-148)—The Dolphin Society contributed the largest and the Grateful the smallest sum at the dinners of 1898, on which occasion both the Dolphin (under the presidency of Mr. C. W. Wasbrough) and the Anchor (under that of the Mayor, Mr. Ashman) raised the "record" collections of their respective societies, that of the former being £2,028 19s. 9d., and of the latter £1,315.

ADDITIONAL NOTES.

ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS (pp. 1-40).

At the first election the first nine on the poll were returned in Bristol and Clifton Wards, the first six in Redcliff and St. Augustine's respectively, and the first three in each of the other wards, the first third of the total number elected in each ward retiring in 1836, the second third in 1837, and the rest in 1838. In all the succeeding annual elections Bristol and Clifton returned three each to 1879, and two each from 1880, Redcliff and St. Augustine two each till 1879, and one each from 1880, the remaining wards one each. Each Councillor chosen at an annual election serves for three years, those returned to fill casual vacancies till the expiration of the term for which their predecessors were serving.

Under the Act of 1835 no casual vacancies were to be filled till the total number of Councillors was reduced to two-thirds of the full complement, hence the vacancies in Bristol and Clifton caused by the election of Mr. Stock as Alderman and the death of Mr. Goldney remained unsupplied till the annual election of 1837, after the passing of the amending Act of that year by which this provision was repealed.

ELECTION OF ALDERMEN (pp. 42-47).

At the triennial elections from 1838 to 1898 eight Aldermen were elected on each occasion to serve for six years, and five additional Aldermen were chosen in 1897 after the extension of the boundaries, of whom two were to serve for seven years and three for four years. In 1901 and each succeeding sixth year eleven will be elected, and in 1904 and each succeeding sixth year ten.

To complete the record of aldermanic elections, I give here the number of votes recorded at those elections which were uncontested:—In 1841, 36 for each; 1844, 30 for each; 1845, Mr. Lucas, 33; Nov. 9, 1847, 25 for each; November 26, 1847, Mr. J. George, 25; April 18, 1850, Mr. Barnes, 22 (16 Conservatives and 6 Liberals, viz., Messrs. G. Thomas, C. J. Thomas, F. Terrell, Tovey, Palmer, and Halsall); November 9, 1850, Mr. Gibbs 45, Mr. Barnes 37, the rest 35 each; November 18, 1850, Mr. Barrow, 34; April 9, 1853, Mr. Jordan, 29; September 6, 1853, Mr. Finzel, 25; September 22, 1853, Mr. J. H. Wyld, 21; November 9, 1853, Messrs.

Vining and Green 31 each, the rest 30 each; 1854, Mr. Abbot, 25; 1855, Mr. Phippen, 22; April 19, 1856, Mr. Ford, 22; November 9, 1856, 28 for each; 1857, Mr. F. Adams, 25; 1862, 25 for each; 1864, Mr. Woodward, 31; September 13, 1865, Mr. Slaughter, 31; November 9, 1865, 27 for each; August 24, 1874, Mr. Morgan, 24; November 9, 1874, Messrs. F. Adams and Brittan, 33 each, the rest 32 each; 1875, Mr. Fox, 26; 1876, Mr. Wall, 30; 1878, Mr. Cope-Proctor, 28; September 3, 1880, Mr. H. Adams, 27; 1888, Mr. C. Wathen, 45; February 24, 1893, Mr. Fry, 28; November 9, 1893, Mr. Prichard, 36; 1896, Mr. C. B. Hare, 25.

At the election of March 17, 1861, when Mr. Leonard (Liberal) defeated Mr. Whittall (Conservative) by 17 to 14, no less than 27 Conservatives absented themselves from the division, those who supported Mr. Whittall being Aldermen Vining, Greville, Robinson, Lucas, Bigg, Barrow, Plummer and Alexander, Councillors Hautenville, Wait, Taylor, Powell, Smith, and Phippen. Only five Liberals were absent, Messrs. G. Thomas, Hera-path, Coates, Naish, and Tovey.

In September, 1861, Mr. W. Naish (Liberal) received the votes of 16 Conservatives and only 4 Liberals (Messrs. Castle, F. Terrell, Kempster, and Wetherman). Several Liberals who were present did not vote. Two Conservatives (Messrs. F. W. Green and J. Bush) voted for Mr. H. O. Wills (Liberal).

In November, 1871, Mr. Hathway was supported by 24 Conservatives and 6 Liberals, the latter being Messrs. Weston, F. Terrell, Miles, Perry, Wedmore, and Follwell; Mr. Jones by 10 Conservatives and 14 Liberals. Of those 14, no less than 8 (Messrs. E. S. Robinson, W. H. Wills, W. Terrell, Whitwill, Carpenter, G. Wills, Matthews, and Cole) voted against Mr. Jones at the next election in 1873; of the remaining 6, one (Mr. C. J. Thomas) did not vote, being himself nominated, and five (Messrs. T. Pethick, W. Pethick, Sibree, Evans, and Godwin) were no longer members of the Council.

MAYORS (pp. 49-50).

In the 64 years 1836-1899 the Mayoralty has been held by Aldermen in 26 years; Councillors for Bristol Ward, 11 years; Councillors for Clifton Ward, 6 years; Councillors for Westbury Ward, 5 years; Councillors for St. Paul Ward, 4 years; Councillors for Beaminster Ward, 3 years; Councillors for Redcliff Ward, 2 years; Councillors for St. Michael Ward, 2 years; Councillor for St. Augustine Ward, 1 year; Councillor for St. Philip Ward, 1 year; and in three years by gentlemen who were not at the date of election either Aldermen or Councillors.

LORD HIGH STEWARDS (p. 92).

In 1835 the Duke of Beaufort was elected by 31 votes to 15 for Lord Segrave, a proposal to abolish the office having been previously rejected by 34 to 20.

HIGH SHERIFFS (p. 94).

Of the 61 High Sheriffs since 1835, 55 have been Conservatives, 2 (Sir W. H. Wills and Mr. C. Wills) Liberals, and 4 (Aldermen Pethick and Fry and Messrs. Lockley and Godwin) Liberal Unionists.

CLERKS OF THE PEACE (p. 94).

In 1836 Mr. Ody Hare was elected by 22 votes to 17 for William Powell Hartley, 10 for Edward Harley, jun., and 9 for Charles Arthur Latcham. All Mr. Hartley's votes were from Liberals.

TOLZEY COURT (p. 95).

Mr. H. A. Palmer was the first Registrar under that title; his predecessor, Mr. Arthur Palmer, was styled Prothonotary, and held that office nearly 50 years.

MEDICAL OFFICERS OF HEALTH (p. 95.)

The date in the text is erroneous. Dr. Davies was first appointed under the title of "Inspector of Health" February 2, 1855, which designation was exchanged for that of Medical Officer of Health after the passing of the Public Health Act in August, 1872, which rendered the appointment of such an officer compulsory.

INSPECTORS OF NUISANCES (p. 96).

The officers whose names are given in the text were appointed by the Corporation, acting as the Board of Health (now the Sanitary Authority). There was besides an Inspector of Nuisances elected by the Corporation annually, two such being appointed from 1795 to 1805 and from 1822 to 1823, the succession since 1782 being:—

1782, December 11, John Tommas.
1783, December 10, William May, till December, 1794.

1795, June 10, Thomas Batty till 1805; John Frankland till 1823.

1822, February 9, William Sayer, till his death, December 13, 1856.

On Mr. Sayer's death no fresh appointment was made, Mr. Yeates, who had been Inspector under the Board of Health since 1851, becoming the sole official under that designation.

SWORD BEARERS (p. 96).

On the occurrence of the vacancy in 1850 a motion was made to abolish the office, which was rejected by 43 to 12. The minority was composed entirely of Liberals, and 7 of that party voted for retaining the office, viz., Messrs. Langton, Visger, W. D. Wills, H. O. Wills, G. E. Sanders, Prichard, and Wetherman.

CITY LIBRARIANS (p. 96).

In 1883 Mr Taylor was elected by 23 votes to 15 for Mr. William John Haggerston, Chief Librarian at Newcastle-on-Tyne. The minority consisted exclusively of Liberals, and in the majority were 21 Conservatives and 2 Liberals (Alderman H. Naish and Mr. F. Terrell).

ASSESSORS (p. 98).

Assessors were appointed in 1836 and 1837 under the Act of 1835, which was subsequently amended by the Act of 1837. The Assessors for 1837 are given in the text. Those for 1836 were Joseph Baker Grindon and Charles Grevie.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE (p. 100).

At the meeting of the Council to select names for recommendation as fit persons to serve as magistrates, 20 of the 24 names chosen were adopted without opposition, Mr. Newman was carried by 51 to 1 (the sole dissident wishing to substitute Mr. Gabriel Goldney), Mr. Ash by 45 to 5, Mr. Herapath by 28 to 23, Mr. Sanders by 28 to 20, the minority in each case consisting entirely of Conservatives. Mr. John Addington (Liberal) was also proposed, but rejected by 29 to 23. Messrs. Herapath and Sanders each received 18 Liberal and 10 Conservative votes.

Two of the original Justices (Messrs. Bright and Kingston) did not qualify.

CHARITY TRUSTEES (p. 106).

Of the 61 gentlemen who have been Charity Trustees, 45 have been members of the Corporation, of whom 10 were Aldermen, and 36 Justices of the Peace for the city.

SECRETARIES TO THE CHARITY TRUSTEES (p. 106).

At the election of 1853 Mr. Miller was elected by 20 votes to 4 for Mr. John Moxham.

SCHOOL BOARD (p. 115).

Of the 42 laymen who have served on the School Board, 13 have been members of the Corporation, viz., Aldermen S. V. Hare, Ford, Baker, Sir G. Edwards, Butterworth, Inskip, and Smith, Councillors L. Fry, Whitwill, Alsop, Gore, Elkins, and Lowe; 9 have been Justices of the Peace for the city, viz., Sir G. Edwards, Aldermen Hare and Baker, Colonels Savile and Woodward, and Messrs. Whitwill, Budgett, H. Thomas and Sparke Evans.

SOCIETY OF MERCHANT VENTURERS (p. 122).

This society has been for many years exclusively Conservative in politics. Mr. Robert Bruce, who died in 1874, is said by Mr. Latimer, in his "Annals of Bristol in the 19th Century," to have been the last Liberal member of it. Messrs. J. E. Lunell, M. D. Protheroe, and S. Lunell were other late Liberal survivals. The last-named died in 1876, after Mr. Bruce, but the poll books show him to have been a not very consistent politician, and he may have been a Conservative at the end of his life. In the middle of the 18th century the prevailing tone of the society was Whig.

THE COLSTON SOCIETIES (pp. 138-152).

The two oldest societies—the Colston (Parent) and the Dolphin—have always been, the former mainly, the latter exclusively, of Tory politics. The former contains a few Whig names on its roll, viz., H. O. Wills, who was President in 1822, and Messrs. T., G. E., and J. N. Sanders, each of whom declined the chair in his turn. Mr. G. E. Sanders had been a Tory in early life, and his father had filled the chair of the Dolphin. Mr. Gore-Langton, the Whig M.P. for Somersetshire (father of W. H. Gore-Langton, M.P. for Bristol) was President of the Dolphin in 1817, but his relative, the Rev. C. Gore, whose politics were more in accordance with those of the other members of the society, took the chair for him.

The Grateful Society, which is entirely non-political, was founded by, and in the earlier years of its history was almost entirely composed of, old pupils of Colston's School. The original meeting to form the society was held at the Ship Inn, November 8, 1758, and issued an appeal for support to "those who owe their well-being to that great, good man" (Edward Colston).

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS (pp. 167-170).

At the election of 1654 there were two unsuccessful candidates—John Haggett, Steward of the Sheriff's Court, who was also Chief Justice of South Wales, and George Bishop, a captain in the Parliamentary army.

At the election of 1790 the Marquis of Worcester was proposed by Alderman Daniel and Lord Sheffield by Councillor Richard Bright.

At the election of 1835 Sir John Hobhouse was proposed unexpectedly on the nomination day (as stated in the text), in the hope of carrying the second seat for the Liberals, who thought to catch their opponents unprepared. The address to the electors recommending Sir John was signed by 57 prominent Liberals, headed by Mr. (afterwards Sir) C. A. Elton, of whom Mr. C. J. Thomas was the last survivor. The others were J. Cunningham, G. Thomas, J. Coates, S. Brown, G. E. Sanders, C. B. Fripp, R. Ash, T. R. Guppy, H. Visger, Michael Castle, W. Tothill, T. Powell, W. Harwood, H. Prichard, W. L. P. Taunton, R. Ricketts, R. Bruce, jun., R. Castle, E. B. Fripp, W. H. Castle, A. H. Palmer, J. Drake, F. Terrell, and W. Herapath (afterwards members of the Corporation), J. Reynolds, R. Bligh, S. Waring, John Jacques, John Hare, jun. (better known in later years as Sir John), and J. N. Sanders (afterwards Liberal candidates for the Town Council), W. Brown, T. Drake (afterwards magistrates), T. Davies (afterwards a Charity Trustee), J. W. Ricketts, T. Mills, F. Palmer (Presidents of the Anchor Society), E. Harley, jun., T. J. Manchee, the Rev. Lant Carpenter, J. Righton, E. Waring, Opie Staite, R. Bruce, sen., W. Webb, E. Thomas, T. Rees, T. Sanders, C. Castle, James Hall, R. M. Ring, C. Rittson, W. H. Terrell, T. Bromhead, T. Chamberlain, W. Roughsedge.

ALDERMEN FOR THE ANCIENT WARDS

(pp. 190-192).

The records in the Council minute books are somewhat deficient in the assignment of wards for the period between 1664 and 1689, and again between 1700 and 1736. The minutes of the Incorporation of the Poor enable me to supply some omissions and correct some errors in the text as printed on pp. 190-194:

ALDERMEN FOR THE ANCIENT WARDS.

Continued.

Trinity Ward — The succession between W. Symmer and H. Combe should be:

February, 1714-5, F. Whitechurch.

October 5, 1716, R. Yate.

1737, A. Taylor.

February 12, 1738-9, J. Blackwell.

St. Michael.—G. Harrington was Alderman of St. Michael before October, 1623, having exchanged wards with T. Packer (St. Ewen) between March, 1620-1, and that date. C. Shuter should be inserted before A. Symmer, with the date February, 1714-5; A. Symmer's date should be December, 1715; and J. Becher's should be July, 1723.

All Saints.—The succession between Bachelor (1702) and Elton (1739) should be:

November, 1711, W. Whitehead.

March, 1711-2, G. Stephens.

February 25, 1718-9, H. Walter.

September, 1725, J. Jefferis.

October, 1732, J. Price.

February, 1734-5, A. Taylor.

November, 1837, J. Blackwell.

Redcliff.—The date of E. Mountjoy should be December, 1719, and of H. Nash, September, 1735.

St. Nicholas.—J. Elton (November, 1737) should be inserted between H. Walter and A. Taylor.

St. James.—R. Bound (March, 1711-2) should be inserted between G. Stephens and A. Elton. R. Earle (November, 1727) between N. Hickes (1719) and P. Day (1728), and the date of J. Price should be February, 1734-5.

St. Ewen.—S. Wallis (March, 1693-1700) should be inserted between J. Hickes and Sir W. Hayman; the date of J. Rich should be February, 1736-7.

St. Stephen.—The date of J. Jefferis should be October, 1732; and before him should be inserted H. Symmer (September, 1724).

St. Maryleport. — H. Symmer (October, 1723) should be inserted between H. Whitehead (1719) and J. Donning (1724).

St. Thomas.—The line 1667 should precede the line 1672; the date of C. Shuter should be December, 1715; "Wash" should be "Nash"; the date of J. Elton should be September, 1735, and of L. Lyde November, 1737.

THE RECORDER AND THE COMMON COUNCIL.

(p. 195).

As stated in the text, the Recorder, although an Alderman by virtue of his office, was not necessarily a member of the Common Council until 1710, except during the intermission of the old Charter from 1684 to 1688. On March 6, 1689-90, the Council refused to admit the then Recorder (Serjeant Powlett), who claimed membership as a matter of right, and the minutes record that the House "broke up after a large commotion." Serjeant Powlett was subsequently (September, 1696) elected a member of the Common Council.

THE KNIGHTS (pp 204-205).

Since the note on these pages was printed, I have ascertained that Alderman John Knight (No. 2) was a son of Edward Knight, who was second son of Alderman Francis Knight. He was consequently first cousin to the first Sir John (No. 1), who was son of Alderman George Knight, the eldest son of Francis. This appears from a conveyance of land in Bristol and Congresbury, to which Sir John, Alderman John, and his father Edward were parties, and which was enrolled in Chancery May 5, 1659, being dated December 30 in the preceding year. For this information I am indebted to Mr. Thomas Perry, of Walthamstow, who has transcribed and communicated to me an abstract of the conveyance as enrolled. "Notes and Queries" (9th series, pp. 321-322) of April 29, 1899, contains a note by me on "The Knights of Bristol," which, I think, exhausts all the facts that serve to discriminate between the various members of the family who were associated with the municipal and Parliamentary history of Bristol.

VICE CHAMBERLAINS (p. 236).

William Challoner held this office from March 2, 1668-9, to 1686, his predecessor being Arthur Hollister. Mr. Vaughan was elected "during pleasure" in 1724 (as, apparently, his predecessors were), but in January, 1735-6, it was determined to make the office subject to annual re-election, and Mr. Vaughan, on applying for re-appointment, was defeated by a majority of 5 votes, Mr. Goodwin being elected.

CORONERS (p. 236).

The following served the office before 1650:—

Hercules Phipps (date of appointment not preserved).

1602-3, February 8, John Edye (vice John Clark, removed).

1613, December 7, Peter Bysse (vice Edye, removed).

1619, April 22, William Bourne (vice Bysse, resigned).

1625-6, March 13, Walter Chester (vice Phipps, deceased).

1641, September 15, Thomas Hickes (vice Chester).

1647, July 13, Richard Asho (vice Hickes, removed).

STEWARDS OF THE SHERIFFS' COURT (p. 237).

Between 1618 and 1643 should be inserted:—

1637-8, February 12, Thomas Greene.

1641, May 10, William Greene.

HEAD MASTERS OF THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL
(p. 240).

After 1622 (Cheyney) should be inserted:

1635, November 11, Henry James.

The date of his successor (B. Man) should be September 24, 1636.

MAYOR'S CHAPLAINS (p. 244)

(1751-1758), A Mr. Gully appears to have served instead of Mr. Price during part of the year 1752.

1839-1840, Mr. Forsyth was Chaplain to Mr. Habersfield from January to November, 1839, as well as to his successor, Mr. Franklyn, from the latter date till his death.

WATER BAILIFFS AND QUAY WARDENS
(p. 246).

On the amalgamation of these offices in 1861, John Douglas Wilson was appointed Deputy Quay Warden March 20, 1861; he died September 24, 1873, and was succeeded (September 29) by Frederick Lewin, who died December 13, 1884.

POSTMASTERS (p. 251).

Mrs. Fenn acted as Postmistress from her husband's death in 1788 to 1797. In the latter year she retired from the active management of the office, the business of which was conducted by Mr. Frye. She retained the official position till after the latter's death.

CLIFTON UNION (p. 253).

This Union was constituted April 9, 1836, in accordance with an Order of the Poor Law Commissioners dated March 26 in that year.

In the text the dates 1869, 1872 are obviously interchanged. Between 1869 and 1871 should be inserted 1870, September 2, William Tanner (vice Richards, resigned).

Mr. Lewis, the Second Vice-Chairman in 1883-84, died in office April 9, 1884, his successor not being appointed till the ordinary annual election in the same month.

BRISTOL COLLEGE (p. 254).

The Vice-Principal originally nominated in 1830 was Charles Smith, but he retired before the date at which the College was opened, January 24, 1831.

THE BISHOP'S COLLEGE (p. 254).

The Rev. J. R. Woodford, afterwards Bishop of Ely, was Second Master for some years under Mr. Dale.

BRISTOL INFIRMARY (pp. 256-263).

The election of officers was transferred from the general body of subscribers to a committee by new rules confirmed on January 25, 1870, and that of the honorary staff in 1891.

[THE END.]

T. D. Taylor, Sons, and Hawkins, "Times and Mirror" Office, Bristol.

THE "BRISTOL JOURNALS" OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.

The following account of the "Bristol Journals" of the eighteenth century is reprinted with some slight alterations, from the "Bristol Times and Mirror" of August 12th, 1899. It embodies the substance of a valuable note by Mr. William George, which was first published in the "Athenæum" of August 2nd, 1881, and was reproduced in the "Times and Mirror" on the 4th of that month. The additional information is derived from Bazeley and Hyett's "Gloucestershire Bibliography," Mr. John Latimer's "Annals of Bristol," and from my own personal researches in the papers themselves.—A. B. B.

The first of the Farley papers was the "Bristol Postman," which was published by Samuel Farley in 1713, number 24 being dated July 25th in that year; it was printed at the house in St. Nicholas Street near the church. In 1725 it was discontinued, and immediately succeeded by "Farley's Bristol Newspaper," which was printed in Wine Street; number 20 is dated September 18th. On or before July 9th, 1737, the title was changed, by the insertion of the publisher's Christian name, to "Sam. Farley's Bristol Newspaper." This was superseded in 1743 by two newspapers published by the same family, and having a sort of Castor-and-Pollux existence, being issued in alternate weeks. They were named respectively "Felix Farley's Bristol Journal" and "Farley's Bristol Advertiser," the latter, as will be seen, not having a Christian name in the title. The issue of the "Journal" for March 24th, 1743-4, is numbered 17, that of the "Advertiser" for the following week (March 31st) being 18. The last number of the "Advertiser" appeared on August 23rd, 1746, the "Journal" continuing to be issued as a weekly paper.

The number for January 9th, 1747-8, was (probably by an inadvertence) named "Felix Farley's Bristol Advertiser," but that for the following week (January 16th, 1747-8) reverted to the old designation of "Journal," dropping, however, the Christian name, and being styled "Farley's Bristol Journal"; shortly afterwards the name of the publisher was also dropped, and the title became simply "The Bristol Journal," which designation it retained unchanged till 1777. At this time the proprietors were Samuel and Felix Farley, sons of the original Samuel, and the publishing office was in Castle Green.

In March, 1752, the brothers separated, and Felix then started a rival paper under the name (which had been in use, as already stated, from 1743 to 1748) of "Felix Farley's Bristol Journal," the first number being published on March 28th. There were thus two papers appearing simultaneously under nearly the same name, "The Bristol Journal" (published by S. Farley) and "Felix Farley's Bristol Journal." The latter maintained an unbroken separate existence until incorporated with the "Bristol Times" in 1853.

In tracing the subsequent histories of the two Farley journals, I will take the older first, that, viz., carried on by Samuel, after the secession of his brother, under the name of "The Bristol Journal." Samuel did not long survive the dissolution of partnership, dying in the autumn of 1753, his brother having pre-deceased him earlier in the same year. The paper was then carried on by his niece, Sarah Farley, under the same designation, viz., "The Bristol Journal," which did not incorporate the lady's Christian name with its title until after her death. Sarah died July 12th, 1774, and was succeeded in the proprietorship and management of the paper by Hester Farley, daughter of Felix, who retired from business September 30th, 1775. She disposed of "The Bristol Journal" to Messrs. George and William Routh and Charles Nelson, from whose office, at 18, Bridge Street, it was henceforth published, the old office in Castle Green being taken from the same date by the proprietors of "Bonner and Middleton's Bristol Journal," which was then just one year old, and which subsequently became the "Bristol Mirror."

On July 12th, 1777, Mr. Nelson withdrew from the partnership, and Messrs. Routh, in order to emphasise the distinction between their paper and that bearing the name of "Felix Farley," added the name of its former proprietor, Sarah, to its title, so that it appeared thereafter as "Sarah Farley's Bristol Journal." In the course of a few years (I have not ascertained the exact date) Mr. George Routh retired, and Mr. William Routh's name appears as the sole printer and publisher in the various issues of the Bristol Directory from 1794 to 1800 inclusive. He died June 3rd, 1800, and his widow, Catherine Routh, succeeded him. In 1806 Mrs. Routh sold the paper. The "Bristol Mirror" of June 25th, 1806, contains an advertisement offering for sale a paper, of which the name is not given, but which undoubtedly was "Sarah Farley's Bristol Journal." In this advertisement it is described as having been "carried on for 90 years" in the "second great commercial and populous city in the Kingdom." I have not discovered the names of the purchasers, but the title was changed to the "Mercantile Gazette and General Intelligencer (late Sarah Farley's Bristol Journal)." The new proprietors apparently soon grew dissatisfied with their property, and the paper was again sold in July, 1807, to Messrs. Agg and Sander, proprietors of the "Western Star," and for the brief remainder of its existence it was called the "Western Star and Mercantile Gazette, late Sarah Farley's Journal."

In the Directory for 1807, John Agg's name is given as publisher of "Sarah Farley's Journal," at the old address, 18, Bridge Street. In the following year the name of Sarah Farley disappears from the Directory, and Agg's name is recorded as publisher of the "Western Star," at 43, Broadmead. On February 21st, 1809, the partnership of John Agg and James Farnham Williams, under the style of John Agg and Co., was dissolved, and on April 15th, 1809, John Agg was gazetted bankrupt. In the Directory for 1809 there is no mention of either Agg or his paper, and it may be safely assumed that the latter ceased to exist either at the end of 1808 or early in 1809, though the exact date of its final disappearance cannot now be positively fixed.

Mr. George, in the note I have already referred to, states that Sarah Farley's paper "appears to have merged in the 'Bristol Mirror,'" but I think he is in error on that point, as I can find no trace of any record either in the "Mirror" of that time, or in any other paper, confirmatory of that assumption. "Felix Farley's Journal" of September 16th, 1809, in recording the death of Mrs. Catherine Routh during the preceding week, describes her as having been the publisher of "Sarah Farley's Journal," which, it adds, "became extinct a few years since," evidently dating the decease of the paper from 1806, when it was merged in the "Mercantile Gazette."

It is somewhat remarkable that no copy of "Sarah Farley's Journal" during the last twelve years, at least, of its existence is now extant. Mr. George, in a letter to me, dated December 15, 1898, states that the latest copy with which he is acquainted is in the British Museum, dated August 3, 1793, and numbered 4,023. I have not had an opportunity of verifying this by personal inspection, but Mr. Fortescue, of the British Museum, writing to me on the day after the date of Mr. George's letter, tells me that the only copies of "Sarah Farley's Journal" in that library are those for April 27, August 3 and 10, 1782, March 3, 1784, and for the period from September to December, 1785. Mr. George is generally so accurate that I imagine Mr. Fortescue must have accidentally overlooked the copy which he names. The latest issue in Alderman Fox's library is that of December 27, 1788; the catalogue of Mr. Braikenridge's collection is entirely wanting in any entry relating to this paper, but includes six numbers of the old "Postman," those, viz., for December 19 and 31, 1715, and January 7, 14, 21, and 28, 1716. I believe I am right in saying that there are no copies of "The Bristol Journal" (afterwards "Sarah Farley's") in either the Central Free Library in King Street or the Reference Library, Queen's Road. The latest number in Mr. T. D. Taylor's collection is that for September 24, 1774. There are complete issues for several years (sometimes in the same volume with "Felix Farley") at the Commercial Rooms. The latest number in that collection is vol. 74, number 3,817, dated August 15, 1789; for the remainder of that year its place is taken by "Bonner and Middleton's Bristol Journal."

"Felix Farley's Journal," as I have already stated, was begun in March, 1752, the publishing offices being in Small Street. Felix died April 26, 1753, and the paper was carried on for some years after his death by his widow, Elizabeth Farley. (His daughter Hester, as mentioned above, took up the management of her uncle Samuel's paper, the original "Farley's Bristol Journal," on the death of his other niece, Sarah.) After Elizabeth Farley, the proprietorship of "Felix Farley's Journal" passed to Messrs. Thomas Cocking and John Rudhall, of whom the former died in July, 1787, and the latter on March 10, 1803. Mr. Rudhall was succeeded by his son John Broughton Rudhall, who in October, 1805, took into partnership Mr. John Mathew Gutch, a school-fellow of Coleridge and Lamb at Christ's Hospital, and a man of high literary attainments, a memoir of whom is given in the "Dictionary of National Biography." This partnership was dissolved January 1, 1807, and Mr. Gutch then conducted the paper alone for several years, being afterwards joined by James Martin, who, on Mr. Gutch's retirement, in 1844, became solely responsible for the publication. The circulation had been for some years steadily declining, and the paper was quite unable to keep pace with its young and more vigorous Conservative rivals, the "Mirror" and the "Times," then under the able management of Messrs. John Taylor and Joseph Leech respectively. Mr. Martin found himself involved in financial difficulties, and emigrated to Australia about 1851, where he passed the remainder of his life, and died July 13, 1862. For a few months "Felix Farley's Journal" continued to struggle on, the chief proprietor during the closing months of its independent existence being the Rev. Henry Richards, rector of Herfield, until, in April, 1853, it was purchased by Mr. Leech, and incorporated with the "Bristol Times," which that gentleman, then a very young man, had started in 1839, and had continued to conduct with great energy and success.

The British Museum Library possesses a set of "Felix Farley" from 1779 to 1853, and Mr. T. D. Taylor's collection supplies the issues of previous years, with some missing numbers, from 1755 to 1765, and after 1772. Those between 1765 and 1772 are, I think, at the Commercial Rooms, with the exception of the years 1769 and 1770. It is worth remarking that I can find no trace of any extant copy of any Bristol newspaper for the year 1769 or for 1770, earlier than November 3 of the latter year, from which date Mr. T. D. Taylor possesses copies of "Sarah Farley's Journal." I am nearly sure, and Messrs. George and Latimer confirm my recollection, that a volume of either "Felix" or "Sarah Farley" (or both in one), containing the years 1769 and 1770, was at the Commercial Rooms some 15 or 20 years ago, but it has been mislaid and cannot be found.

It remains for me to add a few notes on the paper which ultimately became known as the "Bristol Mirror." In its original form this paper was called "Bonner and Middleton's Bristol Journal," the first number of which was issued by Samuel Bonner and Richard Middleton (the former of whom had been foreman to Sarah Farley, who had died in the preceding month) from their office in Castle Street, in August, 1774. On September 30, 1775, they removed their head-quarters to Castle Green, taking possession of the old office of "Farley's," afterwards

"Sarah Farley's Bristol Journal," which was vacated on the transference of the proprietorship of the latter paper to Messrs. Routh and Nelson, whose office was in Bridge Street. The partnership of Messrs. Bonner and Middleton was dissolved September 29, 1783, when the junior member of the firm (who died at the age of 82 on February 15, 1807) retired. Mr. Bonner continued to publish the journal until April 17, 1802, when he transferred it to Messrs. John Fenley and George Baylis. Mr. Bonner died at the age of 80, on September 11, 1813. The partnership of Messrs. Fenley and Baylis ceased June 25, 1803, when Mr. Baylis withdrew, his place in the firm being taken by William Sheppard. The original name of "Bonner and Middleton's Journal" was retained until the end of 1803, but on January 7, 1804, it appeared as "Fenley and Sheppard's Journal," which title it retained for three months, at the end of which period Mr. Fenley withdrew, owing to bad health. He did not long survive, dying on his passage to the West Indies, February 5, 1805. On April 14, 1804, the paper bore for the first time "The Mirror, late Bonner and Middleton's Journal," and was stated to be published "for the proprietors" by William Sheppard. The chief of these proprietors was Mr. Richard Smith, the celebrated surgeon. I do not know how many co-partners were associated with him, but the largest and possibly the only other shareholder was Mr. Thomas David, who afterwards gave his name to the present senior proprietor of the "Times and Mirror," Mr. T. D. Taylor. From this date (1804) to 1826, the "Mirror" continued to be "printed and published for the proprietors." Mr. Sheppard's name as printer and publisher made way for that of J. Desmond July 27, 1805, who in turn was succeeded by C. A. Holl, September 5, 1807, for whom, on December 31, 1809, was substituted A. Brown. Mr. Brown's name appeared as publisher "for the proprietors" till August 19, 1826; in the next issue (August 26, 1826) these words were dropped, and the name of Mr. John Taylor, the principal, and ultimately sole, proprietor, was substituted as printer and publisher. Mr. Taylor continued his control of the "Mirror" until his death, April 11, 1859, when he was succeeded by his son, the present Mr. T. D. Taylor, under whose reign was effected the amalgamation with the "Bristol Times," which resulted in the issue, on January 1, 1865, of the "Bristol Times and Mirror" as a daily Conservative newspaper, Messrs. Leech and Taylor being joint proprietors.

From the foregoing sketch it will be seen that the "Bristol Times and Mirror" traces its existence as an independent paper to the year 1752, being the direct representative of "Felix Farley's Bristol Journal," which was then established, and has since 1853 been incorporated with the "Bristol Times," and in 1865 was merged in the present daily publication. "Felix Farley's Journal" itself being an offshoot from the original "Bristol Journal," which in turn was the successor of Samuel Farley's "Postman" of 1713, the "Bristol Times and Mirror" may be said to carry back its ancestry over a period of 186 years to a date in the very infancy of British journalism.
